Freight Levy Slash Bill Set For Approval

Compromise Keeps Passenger Tax At Present 10 Percent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House was ready to send to President Eisenhower today a bill slashing half a billion dollars a year in tax surcharges from the nation's freight transportation costs.

Travelers, however, will continue to pay the 10 per cent federal tax on rail, bus and airline tickets which the Senate had voted to eliminate along with the freight tax.

Compromising congressional tax-cutting differences, Senate and House representatives Thursday agreed to repeal of the World War II freight excise tax effective Aug. 1 while holding the line on other forms of tax reduction for this year.

The Senate quickly approved the compromise and whipped the bill back to the House to complete congressional action today.

Despite elimination of the freight tax, the compromise closely followed administration demands for continuation of existing tax rates in the face of shrinking Treasury revenues and a prospective 10-billion-dollar budget deficit next year.

It averts a $2,115,000,000 drop in revenues otherwise due next Monday by continuing the corporation income tax rate at its present 52 per cent level, and canceling scheduled reductions in excises on new motor cars, auto accessories, liquor and cigarettes.

The excise rates which were due to fall varying amounts July 1 were imposed during the Korean War.

Repeal of the freight excise represents an estimated revenue drop of at least 485 million dollars a year—all of it coming off the freight bills of shippers over the nation's rail, highway, air and water transportation systems.

The largest part, an estimated 450 million dollars, comes from elimination of the 3 per cent tax on the transportation of freight in general and the tax of 4 cents a ton on transportation of coal.

Circus Fans Hold Session, Swap Tales About Big Top

CHICAGO (AP)—The wheezy oom-pah-pah of the calliope tooted a nostalgic lovecall as dyed-in-the-canvas circus fans swapped tales today about the big top.

"That's a sound we all love and it goes right down to my toes," sighed W. L. (Bill) Montague, ex-banker from West Hartford, Conn. Montague is chief drum beater for a group of enthusiastic circus fans — lawyers, clerks, doctors, housewives, workmen and assorted citizens—who call themselves Circus Fans Assn.

Jury-Fixing Charged

Carpenters' Leader Faces Senate Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Maurice A. Hutcheson of the Carpenters Union was summoned for questioning today on whether he conspired with Teamsters President James R. Hoffa to fix an Indiana grand jury.

Hutcheson was called by the Senate Rackets Committee, which is probing into what Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said might be a conspiracy to obstruct justice by blocking indictments in Indiana highway scandals. McClellan spoke of $20,000 in union funds which he said were used illegally.

Hutcheson and two other Carpenters Union officials are awaiting trial on charges they made an illegal profit of $78,000 on a $20,000 investment in lands sold to Indiana for highway rights of way. They also are charged with splitting the profit with three state officials.

Indicted along with Hutcheson were Frank Chapman, union secretary treasurer, and O. William Blaier, carpenters' second vice president.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy refused to make public evidence which he said prompted him to ask the witnesses whether they had discussed with Hoffa some plot for "fixing the case" before a Lake County, Ind., grand jury.

Kennedy said the evidence is available, however, if Indiana law enforcement officials want it. In Indianapolis, Gov. Harold W. Handley said he will study the hearing transcript before deciding on whether to take any action.

The Lake County grand jury investigated the road scandals last year but returned no indictments. County prosecutor Metro Holovachka announced at the time he had found the grand jury lacked jurisdiction.

An Indianapolis (Marion County) grand jury then indicted Hutcheson, Blaier and Chapman along with some Highway Commission officials on charges of bribery and conspiracy.

Navy To Review Vanguard Project

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A Defense Department official says the Navy's Vanguard program will be reviewed. Only one of six attempts to launch the Vanguard has been successful.

Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, said Thursday night: "This does not mean that we necessarily are planning to abandon the Vanguard program, but we will have to give the program another look to see how it all adds up."

He said in an interview that the Air Force and Army programs to launch satellites would definitely go ahead.

Actress Seeks American Son

PARIS (AP)—French film star, Michele Morgan today filed suit in a Paris court for custody of her 13-year-old American son. The boy, Michael, is in California with his father, producer William Marshall.

Miss Morgan and Marshall were divorced in 1949. He received legal custody of the child.

Nixon Claims 'Bottom Hit' In Recession

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon told a Maine Republican convention Thursday the five years of the Eisenhower administration were "the best years of our lives."

A crowd of 2,000 cheered him when he said "economic prospects today are better than they have been at any time since the first of the year. We have reached the bottom of the recession."

At an earlier news conference, Nixon said it is too early to tell whether the Adams-Goldfine controversy will be an issue in the forthcoming elections.

Nixon said every public official is faced almost daily with the problem of what to do about receiving gifts from friends and constituents.

"It is perfectly proper for senators and congressmen to intervene with federal agencies in behalf of their constituents — in fact it is done every day. It's a good thing too, because otherwise we would have government by bureaucracy," Nixon said.

No Extension Granted On W. Va. Car Licenses

CHARLESTON (AP)—Motor Vehicles Commissioner Hubert A. Kelly said his department will not open until 9 p.m. today and tomorrow to take care of the last-minute rush for 1958-59 license tags.

Kelly reiterated an earlier announcement that there would be no extension of 1957-58 plates. These expire at midnight Monday.

Police Seize Scores In Pakistan Outbreak

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan police hauled away demonstrators by the hundreds today in an effort to break up a peaceful invasion of Indian Kashmir, which Pakistan claims. No violence was reported.

When and where this destruction will come is not known. The Army's third satellite was launched into such a wobbly and off-center orbit that it nearly brushed the atmosphere at its perigee, or closest point to earth.

Explorer I went into an orbit of approximately 1,500 miles at its farthest point, and more than 200 miles at its closest point to earth. The Army says it is expected to circle the earth for seven years.

Explorer II ended in a blazing, premature end when it fell back into the upper atmosphere.

Four separate signals were transmitted from Explorer III. They told scientists about the temperature and the frequency of meteorites and cosmic rays.

Goldfine Lawyers Ask Doors Closed At House Hearing

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Boston business promoter John Fox testified today he got a $500,000 loan from Joseph P. Kennedy after supporting Kennedy's son John in his successful 1952 Senate race. The loan, which Fox said was repaid, was for his now defunct Boston Post.

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Fox today quoted Bernard Goldfine, a saying that he had bought a house for Sherman Adams in Washington and had sent checks to Adams over a long period of years.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine's attorneys made another attempt today to shut off public testimony by John Fox, stormy Boston financial figure, but failed at least temporarily.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) of a special House subcommittee allowed Fox to resume the stand in open session. But Harris said he would pass on renewed demands for a closed session if the testimony went beyond qualification of what Fox has already said about Goldfine and Sherman Adams.

Says Goldfine Boasted

Fox asserted Thursday that Goldfine, a Boston industrialist, told him that Adams, No. 1 aide to President Eisenhower, had some interest in Goldfine enterprises. He said too that Goldfine boasted he need not worry about federal regulatory agencies as Adams was in his White House post.

There were furious denials from Adams and Goldfine. Attorneys for Goldfine, contending defamation could be expected from Fox, had asked that he be heard behind closed doors.

In a reply to Fox Thursday, Adams said it was incredible that any committee would permit a completely irresponsible witness to use the committee as a forum of making such vicious accusations.

Fox, who has said he can document much of his testimony, brought to the witness stand with him today a well-filled attache case.

Fox pictured "powerful and malign influences" high in the Eisenhower administration as bearing down against him to cause, among other troubles, the collapse of the Boston Post, which Fox once published.

The 51-year-old business promoter went on:

1. On May 10, 1955, while Goldfine was in trouble with the Federal Trade Commission for alleged mislabeling of textiles, Fox said Adams went to a Washington hotel suite where Goldfine was staying and Fox also was present.

Fox said he heard Goldfine, after a private talk with Adams, propose a drink to "my friend Fox Adams, who never lets his friends down and isn't letting me down" (Continued on Page 2; Col. 6)

Rebel Forces Give No Hint Of 'Big Push'

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Leaders of Lebanon's seven-week-old rebellion against President Camille Chamoun say they haven't gone all-out yet and they won't give any warning when they do.

"If necessary, we will have an offensive," said one of the rebel leaders, former Premier Rashid Karami. "When we start an attack, we won't tell President Chamoun in advance," his brother Maan Karami said in a joint interview in the northern port of Tripoli.

Chamoun had predicted the big rebel push would begin by Thursday. But the only heavy fighting was in Tripoli, where the rebellion began. At least 10 persons were reported killed and 20 wounded there.

The nation remained tense and the U.S. Embassy warned Americans in Beirut to stay indoors today. This is the Muslim sabbath and a holiday celebrating the Mecca pilgrimage feast of Aid el Adha. The occasion might lead to emotional outbursts and Moslem-Christian clashes, the embassy said.

U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, back in New York after a week's visit to Lebanon, indicated he believed a U.N. observation group sent by the Security Council — less than 100 men — would be the only international force required.

Robeson, Lamont Get Passports By Court Ruling

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Robeson and Corliss Lamont Thursday received the passports they have been trying to obtain for years.

Robeson, Negro singer, has been trying since 1950 to acquire a passport. Lamont, lecturer at Columbia University, had been unsuccessful since 1951.

They were denied passports because of refusal to answer questions on their passport applications about Communist party membership. Both men have been identified with left-wing causes, but have denied Communist party membership.

Last week the Supreme Court ruled that a passport could not be withheld from a person because of his beliefs or associations.

Foreign Help Asked By Ike Again Lopped

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today cut 757 million dollars from the $3,950,092,500 requested by President Eisenhower for foreign aid in the year starting next Tuesday.

The committee acted as the House prepared to take up a separate bill to authorize an aid ceiling of 482 1/2 million dollars higher than the total in the money measure. This compromise authorization chopped the President's request by 27 1/2 million dollars.

The recommendations, which totaled $242,717,500 less than was voted for the program this year, would leave the aid program with $3,193,092,500 in new money for fiscal 1959. The House will act on the appropriations bill next week.

Added to unobligated carryover funds from previous appropriations, the program would have new obligatory authority of $4,142,000,000.

The committee refrained from sharp criticism of the program in a report written by Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La.).

Russian Seaman Makes Getaway

LONDON (AP)—Estonian seaman Erich Teayn, whose freedom dash set off a Soviet "invasion" of Britain's Shetland Islands, arrived in the Orkney Islands today on his way to the Scottish mainland.

A Home Office spokesman said the Estonian was to be transferred to Edinburgh for questioning.

Teayn fled from one of three Soviet trawlers anchored in the Shetland Bay near the village of Walls.

Alaskan Bill Deadlock End Seen In Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Southern leader opposing Alaska statehood left the way open today for a possible break in the Senate stalemate on the House-passed bill.

Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss) said he would be willing to start discussion looking toward a vote on two of three points he has raised challenging the bill's constitutionality.

Timing of the actual vote, he said in an interview, would depend on the number of senators who wish to speak.

Eastland's position may have prompted the sudden halt Thursday night in a session which Sen. Mike Mansfield (Mont), acting Democratic leader, had said earlier might continue through the night.

The Senate recessed in the midst of a talk by Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-SC) shortly after the Senate filibuster champion passed the two-hour mark.

Both Eastland and Thurmond denied any intention to filibuster the bill.

Eastland and other opponents contend a provision of the proposed Alaska constitution is unconstitutional in that it calls for election of one of Alaska's first two senators to a short term.

Reds Refuse UN Request

BUDAPEST (AP)—Communist Hungary refused today to answer a U.N. request for information on the recent executions of former Premier Imre Nagy and three other leaders of the Hungarian revolt.

Government spokesman Laszlo Gyarus said no information would be given a five-nation U.N. committee which appealed last Saturday for any information U.N. members might have on the executions.

The Hungarian Ministry of Justice announced June 17 that Nagy, Gen. Pal Maleter and three other leaders had been executed.

Jet Tanker Breaks Record For U. S.-England Crossing

By JAMES F. KING
BRIZE NORTON AIR BASE, England (AP)—A U.S. Air Force jet tanker set down at this Oxfordshire air base today after making the fastest-ever New York to London transatlantic flight.

Its time for the 3,337-mile flight: 5 hours 22 minutes 29.68 seconds; 5:52:7.48, EDT.

It was followed by a second huge KC135 Stratotanker which also flashed over London in faster time than any previous mark for the route.

6 Reporters Meet Death In Crackup

Two Giant Planes Complete Crossing, Fourth Stays Here

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP)—A jet tanker plane attempting a transatlantic speed record crashed and exploded seconds after takeoff early today, killing all 15 aboard.

Observers said the giant KC135 jet tanker hit high tension wires about a mile and a half from its takeoff runway.

The explosion disintegrated the plane into hundreds of pieces, the largest of which was described as no bigger than a chair.

Among the victims were six newsmen who were to cover the flight of four Air Force planes attempting to break records for aircraft speed in crossing the Atlantic in both directions.

Commander Also Killed
Also on board was Brig. Gen. Donald W. Saunders, Athens, N.Y., airborne commander in charge of the operation.

The plane was the third of the four-plane flight to take off. The first two got off on schedule and headed directly for London.

The fourth plane was on the runway ready to take off at the time of the crash. That flight was canceled.

With the first light of dawn, rescue workers found 14 bodies scattered over a wide area. The 15th body was jammed in the wreckage.

Parts of the flaming wreckage set fire to trees and brush hundreds of yards away.

The crashing plane gouged out a big section of the Massachusetts Turnpike and a 10-mile stretch was closed because of the damage.

Kazimierz Machowski, 45, on whose property the plane crashed, said: "I heard the plane taking off as I was lying in bed. In a very little while, I heard a terrific explosion. I ran outside and it was brighter than daylight from the burning plane. The heat from the wreckage was so terrific it wasn't possible to get near it. Wreckage was all over the countryside. Nobody could have lived in that crash."

Westover Air Force officials said the plane had made a normal takeoff and was airborne. They added that it broke ground at the exact point of prediction on the runway and appeared to be flying normally.

It skidded across the Massachusetts Turnpike — one of the state's busiest highways — before blowing up with a roar on the Machowski property.

Wreckage was strewn for an estimated three quarters of a mile. Patrolman Richard Haslam, 34, Chicopee, was one of the first on the scene.

Laughton Irked By Noisy Drunk, Has Him Ousted

LONDON (AP)—Actor Charles Laughton, who plays a drunken father in his current stage offering, Thursday night had a customer thrown out who was soused for real.

Shortly after the start of the last scene of the play-aply titled "The Party"—a man in the orchestra started shouting.

Laughton, called for the curtain to come down. "We will have that troublesome fellow out," he said. The man was escorted to the door.

Laughton then carried on with the scene.

Explorer III Slated To Expire

Army Says Satellite Performed Beyond Expectations

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Explorer III is due to expire today. The Army said it has performed above and beyond expectations.

Some time late today the 31-pound, 80-inch tube will descend into the earth's atmosphere and disintegrate. It will burn in the intense heat caused by friction, for it was not designed to take such punishment.

The satellite, launched March 26 at Cape Canaveral, Fla., transmitted more complete information on cosmic rays than was thought possible, the Army said.

One reason was because of its highly elliptical orbit. Its farthest point from earth was 1,700 miles. Its closest point was 117 miles in its early stages.

As time wore on, it was drawn closer to the earth's atmosphere. Army scientists estimated the atmospheric drag would finally cause its destruction late today.

It will have traveled more than 32 million miles.

When and where this destruction will come is not known. The Army's third satellite was launched into such a wobbly and off-center orbit that it nearly brushed the atmosphere at its perigee, or closest point to earth.

Explorer I went into an orbit of approximately 1,500 miles at its farthest point, and more than 200 miles at its closest point to earth. The Army says it is expected to circle the earth for seven years.

Explorer II ended in a blazing, premature end when it fell back into the upper atmosphere.

Four separate signals were transmitted from Explorer III. They told scientists about the temperature and the frequency of meteorites and cosmic rays.

The Army says scientists now know that cosmic radiation at higher altitude is considerably more intense than had been anticipated.

Scientists also learned from the two Explorers that man can control the temperature of space vehicles to that easily acceptable for human survival.

House Rejects Farm Bill As Benson Victor

Republicans Push For Extension Of Present Measures

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans pressed today for emergency extension of expiring farm laws after House defeat of a proposed new multibillion-dollar catch-all farm bill.

With big city Democrats lining up with Republicans, the House Thursday refused to consider a Democratic-backed omnibus measure which critics caustically labeled a bread tax act.

The 214-171 vote which killed the bill came on what usually is a routinely accepted motion to clear a measure for floor consideration. The complex, many-featured bill included proposals for new three-year price support and control programs for wheat, cotton, rice, feed grains and milk.

The House action was an impressive victory for Secretary of Agriculture Benson, whose opposition was credited with lending weight to the stunning defeat dealt House farm bloc members seeking new agriculture legislation.

House Republicans, meanwhile, organized an effort to continue for another year administration-backed laws which expire next Tuesday unless Congress votes to continue them. They had Democratic support as well.

Extension of both the school milk program and the program of farm surplus disposal through foreign sales and aid had been provided in the omnibus bill.

6 Reporters

(Continued from Page 1) said, "that there was no need for any ambulances. Nobody on board had a chance."

The civilians killed in the crash were:

Daniel J. Coughlin, 31, Boston, Associated Press newsmen.

Norman Montellier, 37, New York City, United Press International newsmen.

Glenn A. Williams, 41, Bethesda, Md., associate editor of U. S. News and World Report.

Robert A. Ginsburgh, 63, also associate editor of U. S. News and World Report, who joined the magazine in Washington, D. C., after retiring as an Air Force brigadier general and aide to four secretaries of defense.

James L. McConaughy Jr., chief of the Washington bureau of Time and Life magazine.

Robert Gibley, 57, Belmont, Mass., aviation editor of the Boston Traveler.

William Cochran, representing the National Aeronautical Assn.

William Enyart, also representing the National Aeronautical Assn.

The military men killed, in addition to Gen. Saunders, were:

Lt. Col. George Broussas, Brattleboro, Vt., commander of the KC135.

Lt. Joseph C. Sweet, Chandler, Ariz.

Capt. James Shipman, Kansas City, Kan.

Capt. John B. Gordon, Raleigh, N. C.

Philadelphia Paper Strike Not Settled

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A strike of truck drivers at the Bulletin and Inquirer continued last night. Federal Mediator Paul Yager had announced an agreement was reached yesterday between representatives of the two newspapers and Teamsters Local 628.

The publishers in a joint statement last night said:

"One of the conditions of the offer was that the drivers at both papers would be back on the job for delivery of the Friday editions."

"The union apparently has not accepted this condition and the strike therefore has not been ended."

Sam Gentile, president of the Teamsters local, announced shortly before midnight that the proposed agreement was ratified by Inquirer and Bulletin drivers. He added the vote was "practically unanimous."

Neither the teamsters nor the publishers revealed the terms of the proposed agreement.

"All I can tell you," Gentile said, "is that they ratified the agreement and were told to report to work tomorrow at the usual time."

Some drivers appeared at the Inquirer building at their regular starting times but none was reported crossing picket lines of the American Newspaper Guild, members of which have been on strike at the Inquirer since their contract expired June 1.

Yager said Inquirer and Guild representatives met yesterday and another session was scheduled for today. He would not comment as to progress.

Ex-Con Held In Big Swindle

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A well-heeled Nevada ranch hand, who bought a $9,000 foreign car here, was arrested Thursday by the FBI in the alleged $208,000 swindle of a divorcee he left at an Arizona motel.

Raymond Lewis Headspeth, 37, Reno ex-convict, was ill in his lodgings when arrested. He was held in $25,000 bond on charges of interstate transportation of stolen money and stolen car.

The FBI in Miami said Headspeth had $2,900 in his possession and $184,000 was found in a hotel safe deposit box. A watch, two diamond rings and expensive cufflinks also were found.

Details of the case came from Joseph P. McMahon, Arizona FBI agent in charge, and John H. Williams, who holds a similar post in Florida.

Aug. 23, 1955, by a British Royal Air Force Canberra bomber piloted by Capt. J. W. Hackett.

The record from London to New York is 7 hours 29 minutes, the return flight 6 hours 16 minutes, and the elapsed time 14 hours 21 minutes.

Auto Makers and Union Still Far Apart

DETROIT (AP)—The Big Three car makers and the United Auto Workers appeared today to be farther apart in their efforts to reach a new agreement on wages than they were at the start of negotiations three months ago.

The 1955 contracts expired Memorial Day weekend and for the past month members of the union have been working without contracts at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler plants.

The union held bargaining sessions with all three companies Thursday but no progress as reported. Company negotiators gave no indication they were ready to make a new offer.

The union is preparing for a showdown later this summer when the companies start production of 1959 models. It reported Thursday

Man Held In Fire-Bombing Of Truck

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—Baltimore County police are holding a burned man in connection with the fire-bombing of a furniture truck. The truck, owned by a company which has been having labor trouble, was set on fire Wednesday when three men tossed gasoline into the vehicle and touched it off with a match.

A flare-thrower caused the truck to crash into a parked automobile. The arsonists fled on foot. Witnesses said one was burned. Police yesterday picked up a 28-year-old suspect who was burned on the arm and leg. The truck was parked at Rodgers Forge when it was fired. The Catholic lawyers should clear through the chancery all divorce cases they handle whether they involve Catholics, Protestants or Jews, Msgr. Shinar said.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Lifting The Mask

THE RUSSIANS MAKE a pitiful sight squirming in the glare of worldwide resentment over their execution of Imre Nagy and other Hungarian rebel leaders. There is nothing so degrading as a blatant effort to justify willful murder. In this instance, the crime was compounded by the fact that the victims were seized in flat violation of a pledge to respect their safety. Not even the staunchest advocate of a summit meeting questions that these events have heavily damaged the prospect of such a conference. Yet the Russians have the nerve to declare that the West is using the murders as a "pretext" to avoid the meeting. A pretext is an excuse, and that is just exactly what this is not.

THE CRIMES perpetrated against the Hungarian leaders are in fact the most powerful reason recorded in some time for not trusting the Kremlin as far as you could move it with a set of jacks and pulleys. Furthermore, there is considerable informed speculation in the capitals of Europe that the Russians, being smart enough to anticipate world reaction, simply don't care. In other words, they've already written off a summit conference and are truly glad to have its prospect diminished.

THERE IS A certain irony in the present circumstances. The murder of Nagy and his associates seems to have stirred a more widespread and vigorous world response than the 1956 rebellion itself. But then, of course, the Hungarian uprising was crowded by the tangled events of Suez. This time even India, in its unofficial voice, appears deeply shocked. The press uses the word "murder" as freely as do we. Except in a far worse extremity, the world does not expect to hear from the Indian government itself. One wonders how many more shocks like this it will require to destroy the fraudulent presumption of communism in the eyes of all the millions who still live beyond the gates of the vast prison camp we call the Soviet world.

"Influence"

AMERICANS aren't the only ones who have their stories of gift-giving, favoritism and influence-wielding. Even Russia, the self-styled homeland of perfection, runs awhirl the problem. Caught in the web recently was a Soviet soccer star, a young lad named Streltsov. A short time ago the object of national adulation, he's in jail today, charged with all kinds of offenses. Deluged with gifts as a grateful fan poured out its appreciation, Streltsov took to throwing his weight around. He tossed his wife and child out of a gift apartment. Facing arrest for a brawl, he threatened to join another team and was rewarded with bonuses. Later he broke into an apartment and smashed up property. His supporters, including chiefly factory directors, forged character references to get him off. Even after his depredations continued, his influential backers tried to hide the truth. Now it's out and the game is up. The big boys at the plant were peddling influence all right. The only question was what for. They didn't seem to get much in return, except the right to drop Streltsov's name. Maybe, in barren Russia, that was enough.

Court Proposal

JUDGES AND lawyers, and to a limited extent the general public, have become increasingly aware that many courts are in need of vigorous effort to clear backlogs and speed up the judicial process. Though progress has been made here and there, it remains generally true that justice is too slow. Since there are various reasons for this in various courts, reform must come a step at a time. One such step, a most sensible one, has been proposed by a prominent federal judge, District Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. of Boston. He wants Congress to establish a new group of lower federal courts to try personal injury cases and thus free higher federal judges for more demanding work. The flood of personal injury cases in federal courts naturally tends to delay consideration of cases involving broad corporate and statutory problems. Judge Wyzanski's proposed system of lower federal courts would ease a serious problem.

IN APPRAISING a man's career it's a good idea to consider the footnotes as well as the headlines.

Adams Case Broke Too Early, Demos Hold

WASHINGTON—In a strictly political sense, the Sherman Adams case broke too soon for the Democrats. All the portents suggest they did not need that issue to increase substantially their Congressional margins this fall.

"Just another classic case of the rich get richer and the poor get poorer," lamented one Democratic Senator. "If it came seven or eight months later, it would have made a fine launching for 1960."

Some Democrats actually express fear that they will suffer from receiving too large a vote of confidence from the voters this fall. They argue that with substantial majorities they will be expected to produce what no legislative body can.

SOUTHERN Democrats have another reason for complaining. A practical certainty exists now that the next Congress will have a more liberal complexion than this one. On all sides and in all parts of the country, the men retiring from the House and Senate are nearly all Republican and nearly all conservative; the nominees to succeed them in both parties are more liberal.

Pennsylvania and California, to take samples from both coasts, illustrate this fact clearly.

Republican leader William F. Knowland will be succeeded by either Governor Goodwin J. Knight, a Republican who has played ball with labor in California and refuses to go along with Knowland's right-to-work campaign for Governor, or by Representative Clair Engle, a Democratic fighter for public power with a generally liberal outlook.

THE RETIRING Pennsylvania Senator, Edward Martin, has been a pillar of fiscal conservatism on the Finance Committee and has been heard to say that when in doubt on an issue, he consulted the "excellent research facilities" of the Weirton Steel Company, whose late head was the arch-conservative, Ernest Weir.

But the GOP nominee to succeed Martin is the liberal Congressman from Philadelphia, Hugh D. Scott Jr., a battler for civil rights, and the Democrat is an outright New Dealer, Governor George M. Leader.

SAID ONE Southern technician of the Senate, half in jest and more than half in earnest: "Our majority today is so narrow it's too hard on Lyndon (majority leader Johnson of Texas). I figure about four or five extra Democratic votes are just right. The South can get around those. But another of those Roosevelt majorities in the Senate will make our lives a burden.

It will, of course, pep up the liberals, already restive under Southern domination of Congress through the Texas leadership and seniority system, if their ranks are increased next fall. Open rebellion is still unlikely so long as Johnson personally feels he can sustain the burden of the leadership despite his heart condition.

LIBERALS are already saying, however, that next year they want to caucus on policy matters and have more to say about what goes on the calendar. At the moment Johnson, like Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, carries his office around under his hat.

When he wears, as at present, he schedules a debate in which he has no personal stake and takes a rest period. He is doing it now on Alaskan statehood. He is relaxing at his Texas ranch while the whip, Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana, is carrying the ball.

With a real majority, such a highly personal technique of leadership will be much more difficult, if not impossible, to sustain.

Philippine Islands Need U.S. Help Again

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Philippine President Carlos P. Garcia's state visit to Washington—to ask for 350 million dollars more financial aid for his 12-year-old republic—ran into trouble, which wasn't unexpected. He got a total of 125 million dollars.

Not that there's anybody here who doesn't love the Philippines. But their second financial crisis since the end of World War II taxes the patience of even a generous Uncle Sam.

The United States has already given the island republic over a billion dollars worth of help in one form or another. This does not include military assistance, on which no figures are released. But it has been substantial.

The non-military aid breaks down into 634 million dollars worth of post-war rehabilitation, another 239 million dollars worth of miscellaneous grants, 25 million dollars worth of agricultural surpluses and 147 million dollars worth of loans, on which 67 million have been repaid.

AUTHORIZED credits to the Philippines total 229 million. But with only 147 million disbursed, there is still available 82 million dollars worth of credit on which the Philippines have not drawn. Still they want more.

One example of the difficulties can be illustrated by the most recent, March, 1956, credit authorization granted to Central Bank of the Philippines by U.S. Export-Import Bank. It was for 65 million dollars.

Fifteen million dollars were earmarked for loans to small industrial projects. Nearly all of this has been used. Fifty million dollars were for big capital investment loans. Only four million dollars of this has been drawn on.

Ex-Im Bank is holding the other 46 million for use when the Philippines can meet loan conditions. But the bank is receiving no interest on this money. And it is rather irritating to have this capital idle while the debtor seeks more, from other sources like the new Development Loan Fund.

PART OF THE trouble has been attributed to Miguel (Mike) Cuaderno, governor of the Central Bank of the Philippines. He has been accused of playing politics with the Ex-Im Bank loans, to build up the idea he alone can get them.

It has been Philippine Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo, however, who has been negotiating with Ex-Im Bank for a new steel mill loan. All developing countries want steel mills.

Ex-Im Bank has recommended that a survey be made by U.S.

steel men to see what kind of a mill the Philippines need and what would pay out. That survey is now under way.

Most of the Philippine loans have turned out well. A 20-million-dollar Ex-Im Bank loan in 1952, for a new hydroelectric power dam and plant now in operation, has already earned 2.2 million dollars in repayments.

The World Bank is financing another big electric development with a 21-million-dollar loan granted last year.

The young Philippine government got into its first financial difficulties after World War II. A lot of luxuries were imported. The government didn't levy enough taxes to pay for them and

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK — Self-satisfaction in the slogan of a Manhattan bicycle and lawnmower dealer: "We Sell The Best — And Have To Service The Rest."

The gentleman who described recently his experiences at the Indianapolis 500-mile race in 1913—the first year the French sent over a racing team—sends along a pleasant addition:

"I was invited to have lunch on the top floor of the pagoda, which was Carl Fisher's private headquarters, and lunch was served from hamper—one hamper for each two guests. I shared my hamper with a mild and pleasant man whose name I did not know. During our conversation he revealed that he came from Detroit and, finally, he mentioned his name. It was Ford. Henry Ford."

THERE WAS a time when a man could get out on his lawn in the early morning, squirt some oil on a lawnmower's bearings and just amiably go to work, cutting down grass, sniffing the fresh air and exchanging a few kind words with the passing neighbors.

The latter feature always was a sort of bonus — it gave the householder a chance to stand and gab, a recess from his work. But that's all gone now. You have to have a powered lawnmower, self-propelled, with gear shift for two speeds, one for straight cutting and one for around bushes and trees where you want to slow up, a three-horsepower job with hand controls, whirling steel blades that chop at the toughest grass and the best ones have a side gate where finely cut grass comes out all summer.

IN FALL, YOU don't rake leaves—you just chop them to bits with your machine, walking along behind it and doing nothing more arduous than guiding it. You can't start in the early morning any more because of the noise and sleeping neighbors, and you have to feed oil and gasoline into the thing, thus taking the fine, wine-like edge off the air. If a neighbor passes, you have to yell at him above the roar of the engine.

The fun and relaxation are gone, but you get a beautifully cut lawn. The experts are now at work on a microphone mower. All you'll have to do is sit under a shade tree with a microphone in your hand and tell your robotic mower what to do. It will have voice-induced controls and will cut grass at earth level and trim a hedge above it at the same time.

It will cost more than $300 and there was a time when you could sit under a tree and hire three men for 50 cents an hour each to do just as much, also under your orders, and you had less noise.

NOTES ON SOME recent super-highway traveling: The State of Connecticut is not fooling when it marks its highways with speed signs. If the signs read 50 miles an hour the highway patrols see to it that cars do exactly that and not 52 or 54 or 55. If the signs say 55 miles an hour, the patrols grab those doing 58. Connecticut does not allow the customary 5 miles extra. It also has cut its fatality and accident rate by a large percentage. Connecticut drivers do not "tailgate," do not turn in or out of lanes or at corners without making either an electric or hand signal, they don't swoop by you with inches to spare between you.

They are courteous, have superb road manners and it is a pleasure to drive in their state.

New York's Thruway is a magnificent modern road, built for 60 mile-an-hour travel, but its beginning in New York City is a mess, confusing, with too many signs tending to bewilder a stranger. Once you have gotten out of the city and are on the road itself, things go well.

UPSTATE morning dish: fry a link sausage until it is done, then start a fried egg in another pan. When the egg has cooked solid enough to be foldable, lay the sausage on it, fold the egg up and around, pin it with a toothpick and cook until done. Serve in one-inch sliced sections. With hot, hot cornbread soaked in melted butter.

Canada border beverage: half black coffee, half bitter chocolate, mixed, and steeped with two long sticks of cinnamon.

Temperature Going Down

WASHINGTON — Our subject today is not so much vicuna overcoats as it is the icy impartiality of the bureaucrats toward Bernard Goldfine. For a while, apparently, they were frozen stiff.

While Bernie was passing out the bennies de luxe to Governors and other bigwigs like Sherman Adams of the White House, he also was operating a real estate business he called the East Boston Corporation. This was listed on the Boston Stock Exchange, and though Bernie owned most of it, 300 other Bostonians held stock in it.

In 1948 Bernie decided it was too dang much trouble and expense to supply regular reports on his corporation to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

didn't collect the taxes they levied.

GOVERNMENT reserves fell to 230 million dollars in 1949. The United States began to bail them out in 1950, after a survey mission under Daniel W. Bell made some drastic recommendations on how to put their house in order.

U.S. foreign aid programs have poured 190 million dollars into the Philippine economy since then for agricultural, industrial, mining, transportation, labor, health, education, public administration, and natural resource development. The Philippines put another 150 million into these programs.

But now they're in trouble again. In spite of an austerity program inaugurated by President Garcia last January, reserves are now reported down to 80 million dollars.

Still, after seven years of effort, the U.S. International Cooperation Administration considers the Philippines a show window for its more successful programs.

as per regulation. So he just stopped.

FOR FIVE years he got away with ignoring the Federal Reserve. The underlings at the Securities and Exchange Commission knew about this, but they never bothered about passing the word on up to the commissioners. Then in 1953 a stockholder in Bernie's corporation filed suit, charging that his money was being misused and demanding to see official reports which didn't exist.

The government then got tough and took Bernie's corporation to court to force him to make those reports he'd skipped for half a decade. It was during these proceedings that two Senators and Gerald D. Morgan, one of Adams' associates at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, asked the SEC how the Goldfine proceedings were coming along.

SEC CHAIRMAN Edward N. Gadsby, a New Englander like Adams, sounded indignant as he read a 30-page statement to the House subcommittee of Representative Oren Harris, which dug up the facts about Adams' free overcoat.

Gadsby said the commission handled the Goldfine stock case with icy impartiality. "The commission could hardly have done more if Mr. Adams were Mr. Goldfine's worst enemy," he added.

Came up then the question of the five years when the bureaucrats sat, as if frozen to their chairs, while Goldfine kept on not making reports about his corporation. Gadsby said one reason for this inaction was the fact that Congress kept cutting down the size of the SEC staff. He said there simply weren't enough people to do all the jobs.

THE COMMITTEE had heard this one before and they weren't pacified. Byron D. Woodside, the director of the SEC's division of corporate finance, said maybe he could explain.

He had some helpers who recommended in 1949 that he take Goldfine to court about those missing reports, but he — if you'll excuse the expression — put that idea in the freezer.

Woodside said it cost a lot of money for the government to rumble into legal gear on a deal like this and he didn't think it was important. He meant he'd checked with the Boston Stock Exchange and discovered that in the year 1949 only $124 worth of stock in the East Boston Corporation had been traded. Nobody, he added, had complained.

THIS UPSET Harris, who demanded to know whether it was the SEC's custom to keep it investigations on ice until, and if, members of the public complained. Chairman Gadsby said, of course, it wasn't.

Harris said he was glad to hear this, and the next sensation from his committee should come one week hence, when Bernie, himself, tells about overcoats, Oriental rugs, pals in high places and how he operated the East Boston Corporation with a minimum of paper work.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—"When times are tough in this country, people learn to laugh at themselves," said Johnny Carson. "It's an American trait—and it's a good one."

An improvement in the national sense of humor, he feels, may be one of the few welcome by-products of the current recession.

Like most professional comedians, Carson believes individuals and nations tend to become stuffy and a bit pompous during prosperity.

"When people take themselves too seriously, it's hard to kid them," he said. "You run into taboos."

Johnny is in the front rank of a new crop of young comics springboarded to national attention by TV. His trigger-fast mastery of light patter made him something of a comedian's comedian before he caught on with the public.

CARSON WAS BORN in Corning, Iowa, brought up in Norfolk, Neb. As did most Midwest kids of his day, he answered correspondence ads on how to learn to be a magician and ventriloquist by mail.

The difference is that Johnny actually did become a magician and ventriloquist—but wound up a career funny man.

Here is his theory of why anyone ever became a comedian:

"Somewhere along the way he did something different, and somebody laughed."

"Then he learned that he could defend himself in a situation by being funny—instead of having to fight his way out. Once he discovered this, he knew what his life work had to be."

AFTER A NUMBER of years in radio, Johnny went to the West Coast and wrote comedy material for Red Skelton. He got his first big network break when he substituted for Skelton after the latter injured himself during a rehearsal scene.

Since then Carson has had a couple of network shows of his own, starred in night clubs and a Broadway production. His next goal: Movies.

Johnny never knocks other performers. He'd rather study them.

His own favorites are Jack Benny, W. C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, and Sid Caesar.

"It seems to me we're in a new generation of humor. Jack Benny, George Burns, Jimmy Durante—they all had tough backgrounds. They had to fight their way up."

"But now a newer generation is coming along that didn't have to fight so hard. Their humor, by and large, is gentler. They have an intimacy that fits television."

"It does no good to tell your personal problems to your audience. They have their own worries."

"A guy making $90 a week isn't going to flood his living room with tears over the comedian's problems. He knows the comedian gets well paid for his sorrows."

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON — Now that the bureaucratic passion for secrecy has become so epidemic that a stenographer tried to classify Abe Lincoln's birthday, I deem it appropriate that I repeat to you a monologue that was poured into my ear the other day by a high White House official.

Let's you have acquired the impression from current developments that there is only one high official in the White House, let me say that the monologist was not Sherman Adams. You may find this difficult to credit, but the assistant to the President seldom tells me anything these days, not even where he obtains his wardrobe.

MY CONFIDANTE was an unvouched familiar of 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue who does not mind airing his philosophy so long as I swear on a stack of martinis that I will identify him so loosely that not even the most astute of his seven deputies will recognize him.

It was inevitable that the Lincoln birthday absurdity arose in our tele-a-tele because this is Washington. We may not always be profound or searching in our discourse hereabouts, but we certainly are current. This thing was tailor-made.

The Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission, of which Senator John Sherman Cooper, of Kentucky, is chairman, held a meeting, well covered by the press, to plan for Lincoln's 150th birthday celebration. As she typed up the minutes, the stenographer was stricken with the secrecy virus. She stamped them "confidential—classified."

My White House friend, who is sometimes suspected of having Republican leanings, although thus far he has escaped having it definitely pinned on him, took the stand that, after all this time, old Abe's natal day should be declassified. He argues that even if this information fell into the hands of the Communists we could always nullify its worth to them by changing the date of Lincoln's birthday, the way the British do the Queen's.

WHEN THESE White Housers begin talking I make it an unswerving policy to shut up, because, if they are not interrupted, there is always a chance they will say something. My companion soon widened his monologue until it encompassed the whole crazy farce of bureaucratic secrecy. Then he fixed me with glittering eye and said: "I have a solution for this entire problem. Do everything in reverse!"

I yearned to suggest that the Administration had stolen a long march on him at this, but feared he might be affronted. He went on:

"The solution to the whole security problem would be to classify documents in inverse order. The most innocuous stuff should be stamped 'top secret'; then downgraded in classification as its importance increased. The real secret and confidential documents should not be marked at all."

"They shouldn't even be concealed. They should be left lying around. I know, from my own administration experience, that this would make sure that nobody would read them."

"The worst that could happen to our most confidential documents is that they'd be thrown away unread."

THE ELYSIAN Peppy Peppers 4-H Club, of Billings, Mont., has been receiving instruction on snake bite treatment.

The Elysian Peppy Peppers should be heartened to know they are not alone in this war of serpent venom. The Internal Revenue Service reports that stocks of distilled spirits in bonded warehouses have increased seven million gallons to a total of 849,714,377 gallons.

Veterinarians Hear Experts At Convention

Dr. C. N. Foote, LaVale, Elected As New Director

OCEAN CITY, Md. (AP)—About 100 Maryland veterinarians heard from experts on their profession before winding up their two-day meeting here today.

Members of the Maryland State Veterinary Medical Assn. yesterday elected Dr. J. Walter Hastings Jr. of Cambridge president. He succeeds Dr. Dale Wiley of Harrettsville.

Other officers named were Dr. Donald R. Lynch of Frederick, first vice-president; Dr. Charles Ziegler of Catonsville, second vice-president, and Dr. Henry L. Schultz of Baltimore, secretary-treasurer.

Elected for five-year terms on the board of directors were Dr. Walter Mitchell of Annapolis and Dr. C. N. Foote of Cumberland. They join Dr. Robert C. Flaherty of Easton, Dr. Douglas R. Burley of Baltimore and Dr. A. L. Bruckner of Hyattsville.

Scientific papers were read yesterday by William R. Kenny, Chestertown chemist; Dr. Russell Brown, botany professor at the University of Maryland; Dr. Q. F. MacDonald, a research expert from Bloomfield, N. J. and Dr. Edwin A. Churchill, president of the American Assn. of Equine Practitioners.

Among today's scheduled speakers were experts from Cornell University.

State Outlaws Private Usage Of Fireworks

All fireworks are banned in Maryland unless approval is received from Charles S. Jackson, state insurance commissioner. Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker said fireworks of every description — firecrackers, rockets, sparklers and paper caps — are banned unless approval is granted.

Where permission is granted, displays are legal.

Such a case is Cumberland where the Recreation Department is sponsoring a display at dusk July 4, Independence Day, at Constitution Park. Bert Caldarra of Mt. Savage will be in charge of the eighth-annual display which will take about 45 minutes. Necessary permits and insurance have been obtained.

An individual violating the law by possessing, discharging or selling fireworks is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is subject to a fine of not more than $50.

Anyone selling fireworks in violation of the provisions of the law will be subject to a fine of not more than $200 for each offense.

Permits for special displays are issued by the commissioner after proper investigations are made and a certificate of insurance must be filed, payable to the commissioner, as collateral in the event of injury or property damage.

With enforcement of the Fireworks Act, loss of life has decreased and there have been few accidents as a result of burns and explosions, Chief Parker said.

Cornerstone Laying Set For PE Unit

$300,000 Project In South View Area. Progressing Nicely

The Potomac Edison Company has scheduled a cornerstone laying ceremony for one of the buildings at its new $300,000 service center in South View Addition next Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., according to Garland L. Johnston, manager of the PE Cumberland district.

This ceremony will be for the service building and storage, which also will be equipped with second-floor office space.

Three officials of the Potomac Edison Company are scheduled to be here for the Tuesday morning ceremonies, according to Mr. Johnston. A. J. Bowen of Hagerstown, director of district operations for PE, will officiate at the cornerstone laying.

Also planning to attend are P. H. Byer, mechanical engineer, and H. H. Starchman, operational vice-president, both also from Hagerstown.

Work on the two buildings in the service center was started by the John I. Vandegrift Company, local contractor, about May 1. The line department and service garage is almost ready to be placed under roof. It is a one-story structure.

The two brick and concrete block buildings will be situated in a block bounded by Fourth Street, Memorial Avenue, Somerville Avenue and the Jane Frazier Village.

At the annual PE board of directors' meeting Monday, D. E. Stultz, PE president, reported that work here is progressing on schedule and it is hoped to have the buildings ready for occupancy on or about the first of next year.

Two Applicants For County Jobs

Only two men are applicants for the promotional examination for top positions in the Allegany County Roads Department. The Civil Service Commission will conduct the exams.

Mrs. Joan S. Burke, secretary to the commission, yesterday said that she had only one application for each of the jobs. Positions at stake are the county roads supervisor's post and the job as foreman of the roads crew in the eastern section of the county.

J. Walker Chapman is retiring from the supervisor's post and Roy Smith of Little Orleans is retiring as foreman.

Applicants have until 4 p. m. Tuesday, July 1, to apply for the two promotional examinations.

Brasilia, the new capital city of Brazil, will be built at an altitude of 3,500 feet and the city's outline will resemble the shape of a huge airplane.

DR. JOHN A. STEHLEY

Local Dentist Retires After Long Career

After 44 years practice as a dentist, Dr. John A. Stehley, who maintained offices at 1 Decatur Street, has retired.

He first became interested in dentistry at the age of 14 when he began working in his father's laboratory. At first he thought he would like to be an engineer and completed a year of study at the School of Engineering at West Virginia University.

But back in those days, he said, the prospects of a secure future in the field of engineering were not encouraging, so he decided to follow in his father's footsteps. He enrolled in the School of Dentistry at the University of Pennsylvania, where his grandfather, the late Dr. John A. Stehley, of Harrisburg, Pa., had completed his studies to become a physician.

In 1914 he completed the three-year course, and after receiving his degree as doctor of dental surgery, added his name to the shingle of his father, Dr. Frazier P. Stehley, on North Centre Street.

He and his father worked together until the father's retirement in 1926. A brother-in-law, Dr. W. R. Sollers, also practiced dentistry with them.

A native of Falling Waters, W. Va., near Martinsburg, Stehley received his early education at Keyser elementary and high school.

A brother, the late Dr. Roszel Stehley, practiced in Fairmont, and an uncle, the late Dr. Haldiman Stehley, had a practice in Keyser for years. At present a niece, Dr. Virginia Stehley Davis, is a dentist in Germantown, Pa. Dr. Stehley is a member of the American Dental Association, the Maryland State Dental Association and the Allegany-Garrett Counties Dental Society, having been president of the organization one year.

He is also a member of Cumberland Lodge 63, BPO Elks.

Looking back over his 44 years of drilling, filling and extracting teeth, Dr. Stehley believes the greatest strides in dentistry were the introduction of novocain, a local anesthetic, and X-ray equipment.

He is married to the former Martha E. Sullivan of Saxton, Pa., and they live at 502 Frederick Street. For the past 38 years he and his wife have taken time off during the winter for relaxation in Florida.

Vandegrift Bid Favored For Armory

The Maryland National Guard has recommended that the John I. Vandegrift Construction Company, this city, be awarded a contract to build a new National Guard Armory here.

Col. Chester Simmons, construction engineer, said the recommendation will be forwarded to the National Guard Bureau in Washington. If approved there, the contract will go to the Maryland Board of Public Works for its ratification next July 14.

The overall Vandegrift bid was $351,000, which included several additional alterations to the base bid of $346,089.

The lowest base bid of $340,000 was made by the George Construction Co. However, Col. Simmons said that because of the alterations the low base bid would not necessarily be the lowest overall figure.

The third bidder was the George F. Hazelwood Co. with a base bid of $348,879.

When the explosion of eight Niko-Ajax missiles happened at Middletown, N. J., last May 22, the damages to houses was $7,500 and were quickly paid by First Army. Highest damage was $261 for a damaged fire hose belonging to one of the volunteer fire departments.

Notice is hereby given that application was made on the 11th day of June 1958 by The Western Union Telegraph Company to the Federal Communications Commission to close the railroad-operated agency office at Patterson Creek, W. Va.

If the application is granted, substitute service will be available by telephone through the Class 1 office located at 59 North Centre Street, Cumberland, Md., and the Class 9 office at Gainer's Pharmacy, Romney, W. Va.

Any member of the public desiring to protest or support the closing of this office may communicate in writing with the Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 9, 1958.

12,000 Toured PPG Facilities

An estimated 12,000 area residents visited the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's modern plant at North Branch during the open house program Wednesday and yesterday.

William P. Lawrence, director of industrial relations at Works Seven, said company officials were well pleased with the turnout.

Lawrence said a breakdown of the crowd showed the biggest day was yesterday, when 6,000 persons took advantage of the open house tours.

On Wednesday, 4,000 visitors made the mile-and-a-quarter walking tour of the many buildings of the ultra-modern plant to view the glassmaking operation.

Family Day was held at the plant Tuesday to give the employees and their families an opportunity to view the facilities. Over 2,000 persons toured the plant on Family Day.

The plant was formally dedicated Tuesday afternoon at ceremonies attended by plant and civic officials.

Visitors to the plant saw the entire glassmaking process.

Company officials also expressed their thanks for the cooperation of the public, and said they were happy that so many persons and organizations were able to visit the plant, as future visits will be restricted.

25 Girls Go To Kiwanis Sunshine Camp Monday

Twenty-five girls who were given physical and dental examinations, qualified yesterday for a two-week vacation at Sunshine Camp through efforts of Cumberland Kiwanis Club.

The children were screened by the Associated Charities office and will begin their summer fun on Monday at the camp site located just off MacDonald Terrace.

Members of the Kiwanis Club will take the children to camp by auto and will leave from City Hall at 9 a.m. Monday.

William H. Johnson, chairman of the committee in charge, said a couple of weeks ago members of Boy Scout Troop 13, sponsored by First Presbyterian Church, cleaned up the camp site and their reward was a wiener roast at the end of the day.

The Kiwanians will meet at the camp during the second week and have lunch with the children. Two girl counselors will be chaperones and a full schedule of events has been planned.

Mr. Johnson said it is the aim of the local club to have members visit at the camp each day and spend sometime with the children. The camp, which was formerly a tuberculosis sanitarium, has been a summer project of the Kiwanis Club since 1940. Camp director is George K. Conway, who is a teacher at Allegany High School.

The town council in Aylmer, Quebec, Canada, imposes a fine on parents of children under 16 years of age who are found on the streets after 9 p. m.

Things Look Improved For U. S. Farmers

Not All Feeling Affects Of Better Economic Conditions

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Things political are looking a bit brighter for Republicans on—of all places—the farms.

Not on all of the farms, of course, but on enough of them to give some farm belt Republican candidates something cheerful to think about.

Credit for that will be disputed. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson substantially credits his conservative farm policies which tend away from high and rigid farm price subsidies.

A Democratic wheat farmer in western Kansas would be more inclined to credit the almighty and weather conditions which are bringing toward harvest a big wheat crop.

However much the wealth may have helped, it is obvious that Benson's farm policies did not—as predicted—prevent the good things which are happening to many farmers in the midwest. Good things, especially, for the corn-hog, corn-beef farmers. The grain growers who sell for cash instead of feeding stock are not doing so well.

That the report this month of Bernard Brenner, United Press International farm writer, after a swing through the mid-west and into the Texas cotton fields, Brenner found farmers and their small town merchant suppliers better off now than previously in many midwest areas.

There are other indicators of opinion. In a recent Congressional Record was reproduced an editorial from the Boise (Idaho) Daily Statesman which is listed by Editor and Publisher as an independent Republican newspaper. The editorial remarked that evidence that Benson was emerging from the farmer's dog house by reason of improvement in the agricultural economy.

"It is coming to be rather common remarked now-a-days," the editorial continued, "that there's no recession in agriculture. And it's a matter of record that farm prices as of last April 15 were about 10 per cent above those of April 1957, while—most significantly—farm costs rose only 3 per cent in that period. Thus, arithmetic favors the secretary."

Benson touched the same theme in an interview with Brenner. Benson replied that rising costs had hurt farmers more than declining prices. He estimated the cost hike from 1957 to 1952 at 100 per cent compared to only six per cent since 1952.

Assistant Agriculture Secretary Marvin L. McClain told senators three weeks ago that agriculture, long the weakest spot in the U. S. economy, "has been a source of strength in the current recession." Somewhat earlier, the department predicted a hike in egg prices at the farm during the next few months.

That is big political news of itself because egg money usually is a reward of the farm wife. When prices are right she is likely to be happy; perhaps happy enough to vote Republican.

Dairy farmers do not have it as good as the corn-hog corn-cattle feeder men and there are other soft spots.

Fall Outlook Carries Bit Of Optimism

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—You could have it better in the next six months than in the last.

It depends on the expected fall pickup and that depends to a large extent on you. There should be more jobs. There should be more spending money around if only because a host of government workers and military personnel are getting a raise. So are the steel and aluminum workers, and perhaps auto workers, too.

Public spending for defense, highways and civic projects will be increasing, making more work for many industries and creating jobs.

This government spending, plus yours as you prepare for winter, should give the post-Labor Day economy a welcome boost. The upturn would be moderate, though.

The really big upsurge will come when business itself starts building up inventories instead of trimming them and steps up its spending for new plant and equipment instead of shelving such expansion programs—and again that largely depends on consumer attitudes.

It was the failure of an expected fall pickup in 1957 that led businessmen to cut back on spending and start living off inventories—the two things most blamed for the current recession.

You should find living a bit easier in dollar and cents terms. Food prices are expected to fall enough to offset the extra cost of services. If you want a new home or an appliance or vacation on the installment plan it should be easier to arrange this summer and fall than last.

The tax news isn't as cheerful, with the recession showing signs of petering out and the federal debt starting to soar. And states and communities are eyeing you as they look around for ways to raise still more revenue.

If you're a businessman your chances of increasing net earnings aren't too hot, unless you can find new ways of cutting costs. For many, labor costs are going up automatically.

If you're a white collar man you may find the boss breathing down your neck. Blue collars were the first to be paid off when production wax cut back. But then management began fretting at the mounting cost of paper work, started chipping away at white collar forces—in a growing number of cases began to cut salaries.

And unless an unlikely large-scale fall pickup changes this business thinking, that trend could continue for awhile.

I watched ABC-TV's "Zorro" last night and about all I can say is that it was there and I was there, but not much happened in-between. CBS-TV's "Climax" was a real chiller for about a half-hour last night, but its last half failed to measure up, or even tie up its loose ends.

A representative of Jack Paar's headache remedy sponsor (Bulferin) showed up on Paar's NBC-TV show last night to assure Paar that all was forgiven for what happened Wednesday night when a bottle of the remedy exploded on camera. Ferry Group Blocks Move On Bay Work

Port Authority Wanted To Amend Its Application

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The Chesapeake Bay Ferry Commission has rejected a request by the Maryland Port Authority that the commission amend its application for a permit to build a bridge-tunnel across Chesapeake Bay.

Chairman Lucius J. Kellam told other commission members yesterday that two officials of the Maryland Port Authority told him Monday the planned tunnel under the channel leading to Baltimore should be as long or even longer than the tunnel planned for the Thimble Shoals channel.

The commission's application for an Army Engineer's permit calls for a 5,665-foot tunnel beneath the Baltimore channel and a 6,200-foot tunnel beneath the Thimble Shoals channel.

Kellam said the commission's engineers estimated it would cost an additional two and a half or three million dollars to make the Baltimore channel tunnel as long as the Thimble Shoals channel tunnel.

Kellam said the Army Engineers have granted the Maryland Port Authority a 10-day extension before the June 30 deadline for the filing of objections to the Baltimore channel tunnel proposed by the ferry commission.

New Orleans Will Trade Two Pelicans

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—New Orleans is swapping two of its pelicans for a great bustard, a nearly extinct member of the crane family found from Central Europe to China.

The big bird was due to arrive here today from Jerez De La Frontera, Spain, and take up residence in the Audubon, Park Zoo. Park Superintendent George Douglass said he planned to handle the bustard with considerable care, since it stands more than three feet high, weighs about 30 pounds and is so pugnacious that it has been known to attack humans.

FROSTBURG — A special appeal is being made here for new blood donors to help Frostburg attain its Red Cross blood donor quota of 120 pints.

The bloodmobile unit will be at the American Legion home Tuesday afternoon on its regularly scheduled visit, according to Mrs. Perry W. Myers. It is urgent that many new donors volunteer Tuesday, since many regularly scheduled donors are away vacationing.

Mrs. Myers, who is Red Cross Blood Bank chairman for Frostburg, said that unless Frostburg reaches its assigned quota of 120 pints of voluntarily donated blood Tuesday, residents will not be included in the program of receiving blood out-of-state, in the event of an emergency.

Under the Red Cross blood program, she explains, donated blood is used in local hospitals, for the Armed Forces, for plasma and for replacement of blood used by residents who might become ill or injured away from home. When quotas are not reached, local needs are taken care of first, and then no blood is left for replacement. At present, any Frostburger, whether he is a donor or not, is entitled to free blood if needed anywhere in the country. This life-saving factor, she said, is possible, because a few donors have kept the program going for the full benefit of everyone.

She urgently urges every able Frostburger to visit the blood bank Tuesday and donate a pint of blood.

Mineral GOP Unit Elects

KEYSER — John W. "Bill" Chapman was elected president of the Young Republican Club of Mineral County, at a meeting this week in the Court House.

Elected to serve with him were Donald Horner, vice president; Liza Sites, secretary; Sue Baker, assistant secretary, and Richard Morris, treasurer.

Delegates to the state convention, Donald Horner and Charles Seiver, made official reports of the sessions held last week in Wheeling. A group of organization pamphlets from the convention was presented to the club and the following members were appointed to read them and report to the club at the next meeting: Dwight Hovis, Gerald Grubbs, Barbara Tasker and Charles Seiver.

The club accepted a request by the Republican Women's Club of Mineral County to handle parking arrangements for the Good Neighbor picnic to be held here July 2.

Club members discussed the need for a record of Mineral County voters and arrangements were made to compile a list, and to urge registration of those old enough to vote for the first time. The committee will meet Monday at 6:30 p. m. to begin the work.

Plans for a joint meeting with the Grant County Young Republicans were discussed and arrangements will be made as to place and date. Miss Sue Baker distributed membership cards and plans were formulated for a membership campaign. The club voted special honorary membership and cards for John B. Fisher, the new president of the state organization, and Governor Cecil H. Underwood.

Letters of congratulation were sent to members of this year's Mineral County High School graduating classes together with an invitation to attend and observe the Young Republican organization in action. Help will also be extended to those who wish to join the affiliated college groups which are popular now. Several West Virginia colleges have political clubs.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Mineral County Court House on Tuesday, July 15, at 7:30 p. m. and all persons between the ages of 17 and 39 are asked to attend.

There is no legal reason why a condemned person cannot be executed on Sunday, but it is not done.

Dear Abby - - -

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We plan to take like the well-built cheap kind our eleven-year-old daughter on a trip this summer. She still mother brought me up to be a sleeps with a very ragged, ugly lady? What have they got that I and faded doll she's had since she was in the cradle, I've tried to break her of this habit, but she has rescued it from the trash can a hundred times. She insists on taking this ragged doll on the trip and I am afraid she will be laughed at by our relatives whom we are visiting. In the first place, she's too old for a doll and in the second place, this one is in disgraceful condition. What is your opinion?

DEAR ABBY: I used to like a boy and he likes me. I don't like him any more, I like my girlfriend's boyfriend better, and he likes me better than he likes his girlfriend. My girlfriend still likes her boyfriend. I don't want to hurt my old boyfriend and I don't want to lose my girlfriend, but how can I get my girlfriend's boyfriend without hurting anybody's feelings?

South Sees All But Danger

South won the opening spade lead in his own hand and took stock of the situation.

The game was duplicate and he saw that he was in a fine contract and that the opening lead had been favorable.

He needed four heart tricks to bring home three no-trump and the hand would make just as many tricks at no-trump as at hearts.

He led a heart to dummy's ace and East dropped the nine spot. At this point in the proceedings a low heart back toward the jack would guarantee the contract against any remaining heart combination, but South looked at that nine spot with great interest. Maybe it came from queen-nine. In that case he could lay down the king and make four odd. Maybe it came from ten-nine. In that case he could go back to his hand and lead the jack. West could put on the queen or not as he chose. South would make all five tricks in hearts.

His last thought was that perhaps the nine had been a singleton. In that case the jack lead from his hand could not hurt him. West would cover with the queen; South would win in dummy; knock out West's ten and still have the queen of spades as an entry to dummy.

This play looked best. He led a spade back to his own hand and led the jack of hearts. West showed out and South's hand had collapsed. He had overlooked the possibility of a false-card.

Singer Critically Ill; Antibiotics Having No Effect

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Three more diagnosticians have been called in by physicians fighting to save the life of singer Roberta Linn.

She is in critical condition at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. Six doctors already are working on her case.

Her illness began as bronchial pneumonia, then spread as a general infection. Doctors said antibiotics have not seemed to halt the infection, which is seriously affecting her respiratory tract. She is in an oxygen tent.

Miss Linn, 27, was bandleader Lawrence Welk's first TV Champion Lady.

Rare Coins Stolen From Detroit Museum

DETROIT (AP)—Bandits have broken into a model of Detroit's first financial institution housed in the basement of the Detroit Historical Museum and made off with $60 in rare coins. Museum authorities said the face value of the coins was $60, but that their market value would be more, because of their age.

Jury Trial Proposed

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—A while performing senatorial duties in Harrisburg, Judge Wofford agrees with two colleagues who threw out 17 extortion indictments against State Sen. William J. Lane (D-Washington).

"I feel the matter should be investigated fairly and impartially by a jury and the truth established," said Judge George T. Cummins in a dissenting opinion Wednesday.

Lane, a former county commissioner, was accused of collecting expense money from the county

Miss Blondell Evicted Because Of Pet Dog

Speaker's Trip Fails

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner returned by train after an abortive attempt to reach Charleston, W. Va., yesterday by plane.

Wagner has been having plane trouble. Last April, on a scheduled non-stop trip to Ireland, the mayor's plane was forced down in Newfoundland, where he was stranded for several hours.

He left La Guardia Airport yesterday at 1:15 p. m. (EDT) for Charleston to speak at a Democratic dinner. His Eastern Airlines flight ran into rough weather, lost a section of its wing flap and landed in Washington, D. C.

He arrived here, at Pennsylvania station, a weary man, at 2:30 a. m. His train luck wasn't so good, either. The locomotive developed engine trouble in Philadelphia and the train was an hour and 15 minutes late.

State Orders Sewage Survey

The State Board of Health today ordered the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to "immediately have prepared a comprehensive engineering study leading to a method for providing sanitary sewerage facilities for the Georges Creek area from Frostburg to Westernport."

A letter signed by Dr. Perry F. Prather, director of the state agency and also chairman of the State Board of Health, was read at today's session of the commissioners.

It was also stated in the order that "the absence of sanitary sewers and appurtenances in the Georges Creek valley within the limits noted is a menace to the public health."

January 1 Deadline

The state board also notified the commissioners that "it is further ordered that you have such engineering study, including preliminary plans prepared and submitted to the State Board of Health by January 1, 1959."

The county commissioners some time ago obtained bids on the cost of a preliminary survey which would be used to determine the cost of such a sewerage system. No action was taken at that time. Lowest bid was that of Robert T. Regester, consulting engineer of Baltimore, who offered to do the survey for $8,000. John Coleman, city, offered a bid of $10,650 and Benjamin E. Bein Company of Baltimore, $9,400. Regester informed the board that his firm had completed initial surveys of the Georges Creek section and this enabled him to bid at a lower figure.

Seek Federal Aid

Commissioner James Orr suggested that U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall and Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde be contacted to determine if any federal aid could be obtained for such a project.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, said the federal government would provide funds for the preliminary survey through the Federal Home and Housing Agency and that the funds would be paid back later from proceeds of a revenue bond issue for the project.

The Georges Creek area has been plagued for some years by sewage problems with various groups, particularly the Shaft Volunteer Fire Company, protesting against dumping of raw sewage into the Georges Creek by communities.

The cost of a sewerage system along the length of the valley from Frostburg to Westernport would be tremendous, according to members of the county board.

Council Chamber Cleanup Begins

Workmen began washing the walls and otherwise cleaning the council chamber in City Hall today in preparation for the inauguration of the new Mayor and Council Monday, July 7.

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholz said it has been decided to use the council chamber for the ceremony since it can seat as many visitors as the auditorium.

Buchholz said new U. S. and State Flags have been purchased and will become permanent fixtures in the chamber.

Mahoney Spent $2,225 In County

George P. Mahoney, Baltimore contractor, spent $2,225 in his unsuccessful campaign for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate in Allegany County.

Edward J. Ryan, his county treasurer, said his report would show that amount going for office rent; stenographic service, postage, cars and workers, and advertising.

Ryan said all contributions came from Mahoney headquarters in Baltimore.

IN DENTAL CORPS — Dr. Robert M. Johnson, son of Dr. James T. Johnson, city, and the late Wealthy Sylvia Johnson, one of 23 dental students who have been selected for an internship in the Army Dental Corps at Valley Forge Hospital, Phoenixville, Pa. He received a doctor of dental surgery degree June 7 from the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery of the University of Maryland. He is married to the former Beryl A. Dove, daughter of Edward W. Dove, Bedford Road.

County Board State Group Meeting Set

Only One Allegany Commissioner May Attend Session

The State Association of County Commissioners of Maryland will meet August 22 and 23 at Ocean City, but at least two of the Allegany County members of the group will not attend.

When a letter from E. R. Loneragan, secretary-treasurer of the association, was read at today's board meeting Commissioner William A. Wilson said he thought it would "be a waste of the county taxpayers' money" to attend in view of the matters to be discussed.

The association agenda for the meeting includes a discussion of gasoline tax money, planning and zoning. Wilson said the meeting in December would be more important because proposed legislation affecting the various counties will be discussed.

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson said he might attend the meeting. Commissioner James Orr said he would not be able to attend as he will be out of the state on vacation at that time.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, reported on the meeting with William J. Brugger, supervisor of the donable foods program for the State Department of Budget and Procurement, concerning Allegany County's application for surplus foods.

Getty, who met with Brugger along with Commissioner William A. Wilson on Tuesday, said the principal changes in the application were the method of certification, the income scale for eligibles, ownership of real estate by applicants for food and also the necessity of having each member of a household listed on the certification form.

Getty said the application by the county will conform closely to the plan in operation by Baltimore City and as soon as the proper forms and papers are completed they will be sent to Brugger.

Upon approval by Brugger's office and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the surplus food program can be put into effect within 30 days, Getty said.

Degree Work, Picnic Set

A degree will be conferred and a western style ox roast will be held Saturday by Salem Royal Arch Chapter 18 at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club picnic grounds.

The degree work at 9:30 a. m. will be handled by the officers of the grand lodge of Maryland headed by George B. Wells Jr., Baltimore, most excellent grand high priest.

The lecture will be given by Wells and Bird H. Dolby, Hyattsville, grand king, and Joseph C. Bryan, Baltimore, grand scribe. After the degree work at noon an ox roast will be held for members and their families. Additional information may be obtained from John T. Tritt, Bowling Green.

Playlot Lists Week's Program

The program for the Centre Street Playlot next week was announced today by Margaret Buzzard, director.

A toy and doll show will be held Monday at 7 p. m. followed by a teenage dance. Tuesday morning will be crafts and music time and in the evening there will be games and a movie.

On Wednesday morning basket weaving will be taught and at 7 p. m. there will be a stuffed animal show. A dance will follow, ending at 10:30 p. m.

A picnic will be held Thursday at the North End Playlot with the children leaving their own playlot at 1 p. m. and returning at 3 p. m. Each child will bring a lunch. A talent show will be held at 7 p. m.

On Friday games and dancing are on the program.

Sewage Drainage Must Be Stopped

Three orders by the Allegany County Health Department concerning drainage of raw sewage into a natural drain in Grahamstown were approved today by the County Board of Commissioners.

J. Byron Dowling, state sanitarian, submitted the orders to the commissioners for their approval. The property owners were ordered to eliminate the sewage drainage by the Health Department.

Local Man's Will Probated In Court

The will of Emory L. White Sr., 80, of 410 Maryland Avenue, who died June 21 was admitted to probate today in Orphans Court.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTIONS — This is a general view of the swimming class being conducted this week and next at Constitution Park pool by Allegany County Chapter, American Red Cross Water Safety Committee in cooperation with the city

Contracts Signed By Teamsters

Two more contracts have been signed by Local 453, Teamsters Union, with local firms, according to C. E. Stutzman, union business agent.

A pact with the Helmer-Hedrick Company, McMullen Highway, calls for a wage increase ranging from five to 20 cents an hour in the various classifications. Next October 1 an additional five cents an hour across the board will be granted.

Also in the contract is provision for company-paid insurance and two paid holidays. One week vacation after one year's employment and two weeks after three years is also in the contract. The pact covers 15 employees.

A contract with the C&B Distributing Company, local food distributing firm, calls for a guaranteed weekly pay of $70 to the six drivers and six paid holidays. Health and welfare coverage at the rate of $14 per worker is also in the pact.

Both contracts run for one year.

Stutzman also announced that a contract with the Western Pennsylvania Motor Carriers Association and Joint Council No. 40 of the Teamsters has been ratified by the 9,000 drivers involved.

Local 453 is a member of the Council by virtue of its jurisdiction in the Bedford area. The trucking companies in the association are classified as over-the-road types.

The new contract, retroactive to June 1, calls for 10 1/2 cents an hour the first year, seven cents for each of the next two years. The contract also calls for two weeks vacation after three years, three weeks after 12 years and four weeks after 20 years.

The association also agreed to a 50-cent increase in the meal allowance for drivers who are holdover. This brings the meal allowance to $4 per day. The health and welfare payments were increased by $1.25 per week for each driver.

Mine Vacation Starts Monday

Coal freight traffic on the Western Maryland Railway and the B&O Railroad will take a slump during the next two weeks.

The annual paid vacation of miners working under United Mine Workers-coal company contracts will begin tomorrow morning, according to John Mayo, president of District 16, UMW.

The period will end Saturday morning, July 12.

During these two weeks, many train service employees of the coal-carrying railroads take their annual vacations while work is slow.

City Warehouse Contains Variety Of Equipment

The structure is 320 feet long, ranges in width from 80 to 40 feet and within its two-story area is located enough equipment to meet almost any emergency with which the city might be faced.

The building in question is the Street Department warehouse located on Valley Street.

On hand there is everything from tar pots to weed killer. And in the basement, in addition to storage, is parking space for the fleet of 18 trucks used daily in department activities. The size of these vehicles ranges from pickup to three ton.

The trucks and equipment lined up to start a day's work present an imposing sight. The heavier equipment includes a street sweeper, two rollers (one tandem and one heavy duty), two air compressors, a catch basin cleaning machine, two power-driven sewer-cleaning machines, and

Retired Man Loses Money To Bandits

HANCOCK, Md. (AP) — A retired orchard worker who had been flashing the $3,000 he got from cashing his U. S. Savings Bonds lost the money to a couple of bandits late last night.

Harry Snyder, 76, who lives two miles east of here on Timber Road, told state police he cashed his bonds for $3,028 about a week ago. He had been carrying the money with him since then, flashing it in the Hancock area.

About 11:45 last night, two men entered his home, threw a blanket over his head and took his wallet. Snyder told Trooper First Class Richard E. Garvey the men drove toward McConnellsburg, Pa., when they left his house.

He described the two men as slender and in their early 20s, one standing about 5-7 the other 5-10. One had a strong Italian accent, he said.

Biggest Play Season Seen

First week registration figures from the city's 15 supervised playgrounds indicate today that this may be the largest season in the Recreation Department's history.

At the end of the first week today, 2,429 had registered and this number will be increased when Bible Schools and various other children's activities come to an end next week. The Recreation Department said West Side had the largest first week enrollment with 350.

Next week, the playgrounds will conduct individual talent searches with the winners to compete in the intracity finals July 11 at 8 p. m. at Constitution Park.

The annual playground swimming classes will begin Monday at the park pool. At 10 a. m., Lamont, Pine Avenue and Penn Avenue children will be instructed and at 11 a. m. the Johnson Heights group. Children will be separated into non-swimmer, beginner and intermediate groups for instruction by qualified Red Cross personnel. If they complete the course successfully, they will receive Red Cross certificates.

The playgrounds will be instructed two weeks and then another group will begin the course. All the city's playgrounds will be closed, Friday, July 4, Independence Day.

Orrie Sensabaugh was low bidder with $3,772 to extend the parking lot and construct a retaining wall. The only other bidder was Hout Construction Company with $6,700.

Estimate Error Changes Contract

BALTIMORE (AP) — A large error in an estimate by a contractor has resulted in a 4 million dollar Ft. Meade hospital job being awarded to the second low bidder, the Army Corps of Engineers announced today.

A corps spokesman said Gannett Construction Company, Inc., of Washington was released from his bid of $3,692,911 after it discovered an error made in an estimate.

The contract then was awarded to Irons and Reynolds Inc., of Washington on its bid of $3,939,000.

New Leader In Tourney

Nineteen-year-old Jane Schiller of Salisbury lost her lead in the Women's Invitation Golf Tournament today at the Cumberland Country Club.

Down by seven strokes after the first 18 holes yesterday, Mrs. Claude Richards of the Country Club of Maryland cut down the margin of the University of Maryland sophomore during the morning play and finally went ahead on the tenth.

Through 28 of the 36 holes, Mrs. Richards showed a score of 128. Miss Schiller was just a stroke behind and Cumberland's Mrs. G. William Bibby was trailing by only two at 150. Also high in contention was Miss Barbara Diggs of Manor Country Club at 131.

Capt. Lucille Busch of Los Angeles, winner of the tournament in 1956, was fifth with a 133 score at the end of 27 holes.

Other scores through 27 holes showed Miss Kathryn Diggs, Manor, 137; Mrs. R. Foley, Goosecreek CC, 143; Mrs. Helen Hanson, Argyle CC, Washington, 144; Mrs. Gordon Bowie, Cumberland, 145; Mrs. Joseph Smith, Goosecreek, 151; Mrs. Fuller Whitworth, Cumberland, 154, and Mrs. R. Police Claim Safecracking Case Solved

City Officers Say Three Young Men Confess To Job

City Police today reported they had solved the safecracking of a local used metal business and three young men have confessed the burglary.

Assistant Chief of Police B. F. Gaffney said Philip Miller, Springfield, Albert Rockwell, 612 Virginia Avenue, and a 17-year-old local boy were to be taken to the office of State's Attorney James S. Getty today for further legal action.

Assistant Chief Gaffney said Det. Kenneth Morrissey completed the investigation with the assistance of several officers.

$200 Removed

Over $200 was taken from the safe at Brock's Junk Yard in South End sometime during the weekend. The thieves had removed the dial of the safe to force it open.

The case was cracked when Officer Presley Jenkins arrested Miller, whom he found drunk in a truck parked off Lafayette Avenue. Miller had $35.85 on him.

After being taken to the City Jail yesterday morning, Miller was questioned by Det. Morrissey as to his source of money.

Miller finally confessed that he was one of the three persons who burgled the junk yard office between 1:30 a. m. and 2 a. m. Monday. He said he acted as lookout and told Rockwell and the youth how to take a dial off a safe with a wrench and pliers.

Money Divided

Miller stated that they divided up the bills they found in the safe, with each of the three getting $78. There also was some change stolen, he added.

Miller yesterday told Det. Morrissey to a dead tree lying along the Potomac River a half mile from the Walton Tunnel. In it was found a .22 calibre pistol that was removed from the junk yard office.

Miller said that after the burglary he dug a hole in the ground near the Western Maryland Railway bridge and buried his share of the loot.

He returned to the spot on Wednesday, removed it, and went to Cumberland where he proceeded to get drunk.

Turn Over Money

Det. Morrissey reported that when Rockwell and the other lad were picked up the former turned over $60 and the latter $66.

Both confessed and one took Det. Morrissey to a sign along Virginia Avenue, under which he had buried the change.

Of the approximately $240 stolen, Det. Morrissey said $170.85 was recovered.

Both Miller and Rockwell had been sought earlier by the Detective Bureau for questioning concerning the burglary.

Road Workers Picked By Board

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners today selected two men from the Civil Service Commission eligible list as new workers with the County Roads Department.

The two men are Mason A. Appel Sr., Little Orleans, and Howard M. Bender, Flintstone. They will work in the Little Orleans and Oldtown areas.

Commissioners Charles N. Wilkinson and William A. Wilson said they felt the men selected should reside in the areas where the job was open as it would provide a better arrangement than having someone from Georges Creek or other area some distance away from the eastern area of the county.

They pointed out that during winter months a workman employed in the Little Orleans and Oldtown area could get on the job quickly in times of emergency if he lived in that section.

Damage Case, Land Dispute Suit Docketed

Woman Seeking Compensation For Loss Of Her Car

Two suits were filed in Allegany County Circuit Court yesterday, with one of them being a land condemnation case and the other a damage suit.

Margaret Long, RFD 3, Hagerstown, filed the $1,000 damage suit against Gerald Ruckman, 457 Waverly Terrace. In her declaration, filed by Attorney Thomas N. Berry, Mrs. Long charged that a collision in the dual highway segment of U. S. Route 40 within the Hagerstown city limits demolished her car on May 25.

Mrs. Long said that her son, Eric Long, was driving her car east-bound on Route 40 when Ruckman, also driving east, made a left turn from the right-hand lane causing the collision which demolished her car.

A condemnation suit, filed by the State Roads Commission by Attorney Robert MacDonald Bruce, is against George Rotondaro and Henrietta Rotondaro, his wife, Johnstown, Pa., who own property on Park Heights off the south side of U. S. Route 40.

The SRC seeks about 2,160 square feet owned by the Johnstown couple for an easement area for an outlet ditch in conjunction with improvements to Route 40 from the Mt. Savage Road to Long. The agency deposited a check for $66 with Joseph E. Boden, clerk of Circuit Court, as representing a fair price for the needed property.

Land Dispute Actions Filed

Two land condemnation cases were docketed in Circuit Court today by the State Roads Commission in connection with the project for improving and modernizing U. S. Route 40 from the intersection of Mt. Savage Road and Long.

One case was against Anna C. Hull and involves approximately 100 square feet of land for which the state offered $130. William L. Wilson is attorney for the SRC. A check for the $130 was deposited with Joseph E. Boden, clerk of the court.

The second case was against Ernest C. Staley and Levada J. Staley, his wife, for approximately 150 square feet of land. The SRC offered $85 for the land and check in that amount was deposited with Boden. Milton Gerson is attorney for the SRC.

All three were armed with loaded pistols when picked up. They told officers they felt they needed the guns for protection. Police said they did not know where the youngsters got them.

The establishments burglarized included the Martinsburg Gas Co. office (twice), a clothing store (twice), a gift shop, a church, an auto agency and a grocery. No total amount of goods and money taken was available.

'Fire Buffs' Hold Meeting In Baltimore

International Group Dedicated To Helping Firemen Fight Blazes

BALTIMORE (AP)—None would actually admit they're hoping for a fire. But if Baltimore should have a multi-alarm blaze in the next three days, some 150 visitors would be able to show their stuff.

They're here for the sixth annual convention of the International Fire Buff Associates. The organization of fire engine chasers claims about 3,050 members in the United States, England and Canada.

Just what is a fire buff and what makes him tick? That will get you a lot of answers from a group like this. And most replies will revolve about "public service." Most say sincerely they like to help the firemen whom they greatly admire.

But if you peek under their helmets, you'll find there's more than just the service angle. These guys are nuts about fires.

You might call them bugs on the subject, but you'd better not. In the buff's book, a fire bug is a looney who likes to see fires—an arsonist in the eyes of the law.

And a buff just plain hates a fire bug. They get their kicks out of helping professional firemen put out fires—not in starting them or seeing them burn.

Most of the clubs operate mobile canteens which follow fire trucks and keep firefighters supplied with hot coffee and cigarettes. Many of the buffs are volunteer firemen or civil defense auxiliary firemen.

In Cincinnati, the buffs are issued badges by the fire department and are authorized to ride on the engines and help the firemen.

"If they need dry clothes or a change of boots, we go get them," said Bob Wren, international president of the buffs who has been a member of Cincinnati's Box 13 Assn. since 1935.

Detroit, Chicago, New York, Columbus, Boston, Trenton, Newark, Chester, Pa. and Cincinnati were represented among the early registrants to the convention.

Buff from Nashville, next year's convention city, and a dozen other cities as far away as Dallas, Texas, are expected today.

England's 1,500 members of the Essex Fire Brigade will not be represented this year, but a contingent is expected from the 52 Club in Toronto, Canada.

For three days, through Saturday, they will talk fires, tour fire stations, the firemen's training school here, ride on fire boats and help put out any fires they can find.

In a speech to a teachers meeting at Woodbourne Junior High School, Pressman said the hotel was owned by "the Food Fair people" who have matters coming up before the city officials of Baltimore.

Pressman, a persistent needler of politicians, said D'Alesandro had stayed there twice and was not given a bill either time.

"I paid it," said the mayor, flourishing a receipt for the 1937 stay. He said he did not know whether he still had a receipt for the earlier visit referred to by Pressman because he does not usually keep receipts that long.

A Food Fair official in Philadelphia said the hotel was once owned by Samuel Friendland, chairman of the board of the food chain. The company spokesman said he never knew the mayor ever stayed at the hotel.

"If Mayor D'Alesandro can produce a cancelled check to back up that receipt," said Pressman, a lawyer, "I'll contribute an equal amount to his campaign."

Asked if he doubted the Mayor's word, Pressman replied: "That's right."

Pressman raised the question of the mayor's hotel visits in commenting that "vicuna coats and hotel bills" will be an issue in the coming election campaign. He referred to criticism about Presidential Aide Sherman Adams' receipt of gifts and favors from Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine. Pressman is a Democrat.

Police Get Theft Reports

City Police have received reports of a number of thefts in the past few days.

The occupant of 114 Polk Street informed police someone forced open the front door Wednesday and a small cupboard and sewing machine was ransacked. Nothing was listed as missing.

A right wheel and a tire were removed from a car parked on the Moore Motor Sales on North Centre Street.

Two residents of Fairview Avenue and North Allegany Street reported two hub caps removed from their cars.

City Warehouse

Six large plows, salt spreaders, tons of calcium chloride and rock salt are carried in stock at the warehouse at all times.

There is little wasted time when the men report for work in the morning. In the interest of efficiency and speed in getting work underway, trucks are serviced and gassed during the night and equipment is ready when men report in the morning.

The men, themselves have pleasant, clean surroundings in which to relax during their noon hour when at the warehouse. The office section is clean, brightly painted, and the men have storage space for lunches and a machine to dispense coffee and soft drinks.

The office, itself, is well-organized and business-like.

D'Alesandro Has Receipt For Hotel Bill

Pressman Wants Mayor To Display Cancelled Check

BALTIMORE (AP)—Hyman A. Pressman today questioned the word of Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro in the case of the Florida hotel bill. He offered to contribute money to D'Alesandro's campaign for the U. S. Senate if the mayor can produce a cancelled check to prove he paid for his visit to a Miami Beach hotel in February, 1957.

After Pressman charged yesterday that the mayor was a "free loader" at the hotel, owned by a foodstore chain, D'Alesandro produced a receipt showing he paid $221.04 for his Jan. 27-Feb. 18 stay.

In a speech to a teachers meeting at Woodbourne Junior High School, Pressman said the hotel was owned by "the Food Fair people" who have matters coming up before the city officials of Baltimore.

Pressman, a persistent needler of politicians, said D'Alesandro had stayed there twice and was not given a bill either time.

CUMBERLAND FROSTBURG KEYSER

HAGAN

ROOT BEER

Ripple

ICE CREAM

"Put everything you have into the game and play to win!" That's the motto of John R. Boots, Sapp, who at the age of 27 ranks as one of Cumberland's outstanding tennis players.

"I've just never played any other way," says Boots. "I wouldn't get a kick out of the game if I didn't have that desire."

Many younger persons play tennis merely for relaxation, but not Sapp. "You can get physical exercise by doing calisthenics, but when I play tennis I like to win and I like for my opponent to have the same attitude," says the feverish Sapp.

Boots was always like that. As a boy in high school, he weighed less than 140 pounds. But for two years he was a regular in football at Allegany. Although only 5-8, he played end and pound for pound was as tough as they come.

There was a game, for instance, against Johnstown Central at Point Stadium when he hooked a punt and lost four front teeth in the process. This happened early in the contest but Boots refused to quit, although dazed and almost out on his feet. The halftime rest gave him a breathing spell and he finished the game, spitting blood throughout.

Sapp played under Bill Bowers the first year he came to Cumberland in the fall of 1956, teaming with Jack Wilkinson at end. Boots and Jack gave Alto a speedy terminal combination, both running the 100-yard dash on the track team.

Sapp continued to show his spunk after leaving high school. He played for any independent football team that asked him and one season he appeared on three successive weekends at Meyersdale for three different Cumberland eleveners.

On one occasion he sustained a broken collarbone at Magerstown, an injury that usually keeps a player out for the rest of the year. But less than five weeks after the mishap he was not only back in the lineup, but starting in a victory over Star City.

Among the independent football teams for which Boots played were the Collegians, Rosebuds and Ridgeley Firemen. One of his most memorable moments on the gridiron came in a rugged 6-0 victory at Winchester in which he snared a 30-yard pass from Gus Carpentieri and rambled 30 more yards for the touchdown.

Then there was the time when the Collegians journeyed to Baltimore to meet a team which featured several Navy and Western Maryland gridders. The locals lost 19-0 but Esby Barley completed 11 of 12 passes for about 175 yards and Sapp made all 11 of the receptions.

There are two other high school games that also stand out in Sapp's memory. One was a contest at Keyser in which the Campers had four touchdowns called back but finally won on a field goal. That was kicked, as Boots recalls it, either by Austin Fleming or Albert Wolfe. Similar circumstances prevailed at Martinsburg when three Allegany TDs were nullified, with victory coming when Frank Barrett fumbled and Henry Kuhn and Les Seibert recovered over the goal.

Sapp was a substitute in basketball at Allegany but had the honor of scoring the West Siders' only field goal in a 1927 game against LaSalle at the State Armory which found the Explorers winning 24 to 4.

"I'll never forget that game," Boots says. "I was in the game for only about a minute — just time enough to score that field goal and go out on personals, fouling Vic May four straight times."

Sapp had one of his greatest days in track while a member of Company G in 1931. When the Guardsmen were at Camp Ritchie he won the 100 and 220-yard dashes, the half-mile run and the high jump. In between the 220 and half-mile he won the 100-yard freestyle event in swimming.

That was the same day, Sapp said, that Abe Gerson won the 20-mile marathon for Company G the afternoon and a four-round boxing bout at night.

Sapp also played a lot of softball. When Al Sheetz was first breaking in as a pitcher, Boots hooked up with him in a 1-0 thriller. Sapp, pitching for Cumberland Heights, gave up only two hits in nine innings but Sheetz hurled a no-hitter as East Side won.

Boots managed, caught and pitched one year for State Guard when that team was in the Rocking Chair League.

Sapp didn't start to play tennis until he was 32. He has never won any top titles but he came close several years ago when he

Trio Of Pirates To Start In All-Star Contest

Musial Near Unanimous Choice, Favorites Miss

By NORMAN MILLER

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stan Musial was a near-unanimous choice today for the 1958 major league All-Star game, but many perennial favorites including Ted Williams, Yogi Berra, Ed Mathews and Harvey Kuenn were passed up in the voting by the men who know the game best.

Major league players, managers and coaches, picking the eight starters on each All-Star team for the first time, in nearly every case honored 1958 performances over the time-honored reputations of some of baseball's greatest stars.

In the American League, they chose left fielder Bob Cerv of the Athletics over Williams, and catcher Gus Triandos of the Orioles over Berra. In the National League, they favored converted third baseman Frank Thomas, outfielder Bob Skinner and second baseman Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates.

Drastic Shakeup

So drastic was the shakeup of All-Star choices that five of the 16 starters never have been picked even as a reserve before this. They are Cerv, Triandos, Mazeroski, Skinner and shortstop Luis Aparicio of the White Sox.

Here are the players chosen to start the 25th annual All-Star game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, July 8 (with batting averages through Wednesday in parentheses):

AMERICAN LEAGUE
 C—Gus Triandos, Baltimore (.282)
 1b—Bill Skowron, N. Y. (.281)
 2b—Nellie Fox, Chicago (.333)
 3b—Frank Malzone, Boston (.305)
 ss—Luis Aparicio, Chicago (.257)
 lf—Bob Cerv, Kansas City (.313)
 rf—Mickey Mantle, N. Y. (.277)
 cf—Jackie Jensen, Boston (.295)

NATIONAL LEAGUE
 1b—Bill Crandall, Milwaukee (.281)
 2b—Stan Musial, St. Louis (.364)
 3b—Bill Mazeroski, Pitts. (.282)
 ss—Frank Thomas, Pitts. (.302)
 lf—Ernie Banks, Chicago (.303)
 cf—Bob Skinner, Pittsburgh (.326)
 rf—Willie Mays, San Fran. (.373)
 cf—Hank Aaron, Milwaukee (.258)

The pitchers and the reserve players for each squad will be chosen by the respective managers, Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Fred Haney of the Braves, and announced in Sunday's newspapers. Stengel already has assured Berra of a place on the squad. It is expected that both managers will round out their squads with many of the "old pros" who did not win berths on the starting teams.

15th For Musial
 Musial, who will be participating in his 15th all-star game, received 201 votes of the total 231 cast in the National League. In view of the fact that the major leaguers were not permitted to vote for members of their own teams, Musial was favored by nearly every one of those eligible to vote for him.

Mays, the major league batting leader with a .373 mark, was the second-highest vote-getter with 195. Malzone, the Red Sox' steady third baseman, was the most popular American League choice, appearing on the ballots of 186 of the 235 votes cast.

Other players who won their positions by one-sided margins were Banks, with 184 votes; Crandall with 171; Jensen with 147; Triandos with 126 and Thomas with 122.

The closest contest for any position was at second base in the American League where Fox edged McDougald, 108 votes to 104.

Cerv beat out Williams, 104 votes to 86; Mantle topped Kuenn, 133 to 100; Thomas had a 122-65 margin over Mathews; and Triandos' 126 votes beat out Lollar, 89 and Berra's 26.

Fans throughout the country selected the starting players in recent years and caused a furore last season when Cincinnati rooters "stuffed" the ballot box and elected eight Redlegs as starters. Commissioner Ford Frick overruled the fans and placed Mays and Aaron on the team, along with six Cincinnati players.

Girl's State Net Finals Set Today

BALTIMORE (AP)—Finals for girls and semifinals for boys were scheduled today in the under 18 age bracket of the Maryland State Amateur Tennis championships. All seeded players came through in yesterday's rounds, but the best match of the day involved two unranked boys.

Horace Cunningham of Lynchburg, Va., ousted James Bustin Jr. of Cambridge, 5-7, 6-4, 6-0. The 15-year-old Eastern Shore star was one of the youngest players in the division.

Pen-Mar Loop In Full Card Over Weekend

Hyndman and Grantsville put their four-game win streaks on the diamonds tomorrow in the Pen-Mar Baseball League, the Merchants opposing Zihlman on the Hyndman field while the Sluggers are host to Mt. Savage. Barrelville, deadlocked with Hyndman for the lead, goes for its third in a row when tangling with Wellersburg, on the latter's grounds. Both the Old Exports and Hyndman have won 10 of a dozen games while Grantsville is but a game off the pace in third place with a 9-3 record.

With a full card on tap tomorrow and Sunday, the fourth Saturday fray has Salisbury (6-6) invading Flintstone (1-12). On Sunday, Hyndman is at Wellersburg, Barrelville faces Zihlman on the Zippers' diamond and Salisbury is at Mt. Savage. All games are to begin at 2:30 p. m.

Palmer Sets Course Mark

EAST NORWICH, N.Y. (AP)—For a brief spell Thursday an unsung young fellow named Davis Love was leading in the first round of the Long Island Open Golf Tournament.

He had shot a 2-under-par 69. It didn't hold up, of course. Later he was tied by four others, two more shot 68s, and one, Arnold Palmer, scored a course record breaking 66 to wind up on top for the day.

But young Davis Love had his moment of glory, and it must have been shared by an unnamed Arkansas businessman who has a pretty good stake in the 22-year-old lad from Eldorado.

Love is one of those fortunate young pros who has a sponsor. He has a deal with the unnamed businessman whereby he is paid $10,000 a year for five years in return for a share of his earnings — 60 per cent the first year, 40 the second, 30 the third, 20 the fourth and 10 the fifth.

To date the former Texas University player and recent graduate of Mississippi Southern hasn't won a dime, but he only joined the tour last week at Flint, Mich. Right behind Palmer were George Bernardin, Miami Springs, Fla., and E.J. "Dutch" Harrison, St. Louis, each with a 68.

Stringers Play Exports Today

Stringtown, with a two-and-one-half game bulge in the County Softball League, has a chance of padding the margin this evening when facing runnerup Corriganville on the latter's diamond.

The Stringers have won 12 of 14 starts, including a pair of triumphs over the Old Exports. Their third contest wound up in a 3-3 tie, the game being called because of darkness. Corriganville, '37 playoff champs, have had two of the four binges for won nine and lost four. Tonight's contest is a replay of the deadlocked tilt.

Homewood Tavern will be at Vale Maroons, 18-5, in the other Hyndman Planers in another game. Tom Connors had a home-makeup clash. The two clubs or double, Ray Morgan a triple the month. Homewood has won for the winners. Tim Scaletta's only twice in 14 attempts while triple scored two of the Maroons' Hyndman shows a 3-11 record. Both tilts will begin at 6:15.

Segura To Make Bid For Singles Crown

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Pancho Segura says he will make an all-out try for the singles title in Jack Kramer's $15,000 masters' round robin pro tennis tournament, which starts here Saturday. Segura said he will pass up a chance at some of the prize money in the doubles to save his strength for singles.

The popular Pancho has one big hurdle, however. That's another Pancho named Gonzales. Segura meets Gonzales first.

Pen-Mar Kids' Race Still Tied As Leaders Win

The two-way scramble for first place in the Pen-Mar Little League continued yesterday as deadlocked leaders Barrelville and Cresaptown both chalked up their 10th victory in 14 starts.

Steve "Lefty" Vandenburg slipped a three-hitter and fanned 10 for his fifth triumph as Cresaptown set down LaVale Orioles, 5-1. Don Engle was touched for only four safeties in hurled his fourth victory while striking out Keister of Zihlman had two hits, 11 as Barrelville whipped Tri-State Memorial, 7-1.

Bobby Robinson had two safeties and Cecil poled a double for Eagles. Frost singled home the only run for the Orioles in the final frame.

Gary Barb's homer with the bases loaded sparked the Barrelville attack. His shot coming in a five-run fourth inning. Keith Kennel and Jim Loar had two hits apiece while Randy Redden had two of the four binges for won nine and lost four. Tonight's contest is a replay of the deadlocked tilt.

Ellerslie ran its winning streak to four games in trouncing LaVale Maroons, 18-5, in the other Hyndman Planers in another game. Tom Connors had a home-makeup clash. The two clubs or double, Ray Morgan a triple the month. Homewood has won for the winners. Tim Scaletta's only twice in 14 attempts while triple scored two of the Maroons' Hyndman shows a 3-11 record. Wright's Ends Losing Skein Wright's Crossing, getting all its runs in the first inning, snapped a six-game losing streak yesterday by whipping Zihlman, 5-3. Muir's single to centerfield drove in the winning runs. Cumberland got one run back in the home fourth but couldn't pull out a victory.

Muir paced the winners with four hits. Blaine Culler was knocked out of the box in the opening frame and Jack Anderson finished on the hill for Zihlman. Jim Gardner and Joe McGowan of Wright's Crossing and Jim Keister of Zihlman had two hits each.

Lonacoring tallied in every inning to hand Finzel a 17-2 lacrosse. The Mid-Westernport contest was postponed because of rain.

"Coke" Robertson fashioned a five-hitter and fanned five Finzel batters for "Coney." "Evy" Spiker had a three-run homer in the fourth and also added a pair of singles for the winners.

Ronnie Rice had two hits and Cal McKenzie a double for Finzel. MAU 220-yard freestyle champion.

Cumberland was edged, 3-2, by pion in Hawaii in 1954.

Jane Schiller Leader In Local Golf Tourney

Miss Jane Schiller, at 19, one of the youngest ever to participate in the invitation tourney of the Women's Golf Association at the Cumberland Country Club, had a commanding seven-stroke lead as the second and final round of the eighth-annual affair got underway this morning.

Miss Schiller, a sophomore at the University of Maryland and playing out of the Green Hill Country Club of Salisbury, posted a three-over-par 76 for the first 18 holes yesterday. Closest to her was Mrs. Claude Richards of Westminster who toured the course with an 83.

Mrs. G. William Bibby, Cumberland's top woman golfer, held third place with an 85.

Miss Schiller, regarded as the "darkhorse" and playing here for the first time, hit the greens on 13 of the holes despite a course which had been made slow by a heavy early morning shower.

She had nine pars, three birdies and six bogies in pacing the field over the runnerup Cresaptown of 72 linkswomen who represented five states and the District of Columbia in the 36-hole event.

Rounding out the top ten in the low gross scoring department were Miss Barbara Diggs, Manor Country Club, Washington, 87; Capt. Lucille Busch, Los Angeles, 88; Mrs. Midge Kauffman, Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, 89; Mrs. W. Royce Hodges, Cumberland, 89; Miss Kathryn Diggs, Manor Country Club, 90; and Miss Colette Hanly, Argyle Country Club, Washington, 90.

Capt. Busch, who is in fifth place, was the 1956 champion and is the only contestant who has earned a leg on the Old Export Bowl, the top prize offered by the Cumberland Brewing Company.

The tourney, limited to players with a handicap of 25 and under, was to have the second round begin this morning at 8:30. Miss Schiller was in a twosome with Mrs. Richards with their tee-off time slated at 10:04.

Unbeaten Ortiz To Fight Busso

NEW YORK (AP)—If unbeaten Carlos Ortiz ever expects to fight for the title, he must handle the likes of Johnny Busso, the fellow New Yorker he meets tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Ortiz is unbeaten in 27 professional starts. He won 26 and the other was called a "no decision" bout in Hollywood when both he and Lou Filippo were cut in a 1957 bout.

The 5-7 lightweight, ranked No. 6 by the National Boxing Assn., was born in Puerto Rico but brought up in New York.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p. m., EDT.

Gym Khana Slated By Club On Sunday

The Western Maryland Sports Car Club will stage a Gym Khana this Sunday, starting at 2 p. m., on the parking lot of the A & P Super Market at Winocow Street.

The Gym Khana has participants vying with each other in a series of driving skill tests.

Pony Leaders Clash Today

Frostburg's newly-won lead in the Bi-State Pony Baseball League gets its first serious test today when the Mountain City entry invades Cresaptown. Frostburg took over first place last Monday when beating Lonacoring while Cresaptown was knocked from the top slot in losing to LaVale.

The meeting is the second between the clubs, Cresaptown winning the first clash, 5-0. Frostburg has won seven of eight starts and holds a game edge in the runnerup Cresaptown of 72 linkswomen who represented five states and the District of Columbia in the 36-hole event.

Rounding out the top ten in the low gross scoring department were Miss Barbara Diggs, Manor Country Club, Washington, 87; Capt. Lucille Busch, Los Angeles, 88; Mrs. Midge Kauffman, Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, 89; Mrs. W. Dodgers Boast Six In Row Over Braves

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

The Dodgers have a date for the World Series—to watch it on television—and just so no one can call 'em bum sports, they're trying to get the Braves to join them.

The Dodgers are still mired in last place but they're No. 1 on the list for giving Milwaukee trouble this season.

They have now beaten the world champion Braves six straight times this year and for those figure fanatics who like to dig way back, the Dodgers boast eight victories in a row over Milwaukee since last Sept. 12.

Don Drysdale did the honors last night with a 4-1 triumph over the Braves that sliced their National League lead to one-and-a-half games.

Dan Dodgers Seek Third; Phils Beaten

The lanky 21-year-old fastballer set down Milwaukee on eight hits and added a bit of icing to the victory cake with a seventh-inning homer off loser Lew Burdette. Charley Neal also chipped in with his 11th homer of the season in the second inning.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli limited Cincinnati to seven hits in pitching San Francisco to a 5-1 decision. Antonelli was locked in a 1-1 pitching duel with Harvey Haddix until the eighth when the Giants rallied for four runs, including Orlando Cepeda's 15th homer with two men on base.

The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, for their sixth straight win in the only other National League game scheduled.

Three errors contributed to the downfall of the Pirates, who lost their sixth straight. Left fielder Bob Skinner dropped Stan Musial's fly ball for a two-base error in the seventh and the Cards went on to score three runs on four hits off Vern Law.

Lopez Hits Three

Another pair of errors by the usually brilliant-fielding Bill Mazeroski in the ninth enabled the Cardinals to add two more unearned runs. Lindy McDaniel gained his fourth victory although requiring relief from Larry Jackson in the eighth. Frank Thomas hit his 21st homer for the Pirates.

Hector Lopez of the Kansas City Athletics supplied the big noise in the American League with three home runs that sank the Washington Senators, 8-6, in 12 innings.

Lopez' third homer of the game came in the 12th with one on off Vito Valentini and earned reliever Murry Dickson his sixth victory. Roy Sievers hit his 14th and 15th homers for the Senators.

Ted Williams' ninth homer of the year in the eighth inning powered the Boston Red Sox to a 2-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Williams hit his tie-breaking homer off Cal McLish, who also was tagged for a seventh-inning homer by Dick Gernert.

Harshman Blanks Tigers

Ike Delock held the Indians to five hits and struck out 12 to notch his fifth victory without a defeat.

Southpaw Jack Harshman of the Orioles turned in his third shutout of the campaign by beating the Tigers, 2-0, with a five-hitter.

Baltimore picked up its first run off loser Billy Hoelt in the opening frame on a walk. Dick Williams' single, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly and its final run in the sixth on Bob Boyd's homer. The victory was Harshman's sixth.

Hilless relief pitching over the last 2½ innings by Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar helped the Yankees to a 4-3 triumph over the White Sox.

Boasting a second-division record of two wins and five setbacks several weeks ago, the surging Knights of Columbus yesterday knocked off pacing Veterans of Foreign Wars, 4-3, to move within a game of second place in the Rocking Chair Softball League.

The victory was the fifth in a row for the Caseys and the fifth in succession for pitcher Allan Sheetz who got the nod over Glenn Kauffman in a hard-fought contest at East Side Field.

Both pitchers were soaked rather hard, Sheetz being touched for ten safeties, four for extra bases, and Kauffman giving up eight. The Caseys had two players thrown out at the plate and the Vets one.

Aman's Single Wins

A bases-loaded single by Chug Aman in the top of the sixth scored Mickey Clark with the winning run, although the game's batting star was Ted Durbin who had a homer, triple and double in three trips and scored all of the VFW runs.

Durbin, who hits with authority to all fields, lined a two-bagger to the bank in right field and scored the first tally on Vern Penner's two-out ground single.

In the fourth, Durbin smashed a long leadoff homer to left-center and in the sixth he led off with a three-bagger to deep right and scored after two were out when Pete Elliott ripped a single to right.

The Caseys got their initial tally in the first when Clark singled with one out, moved up on George Geatz' ground-out and scored on Bob McGreevy's solid smash to right. In the third Al Martin beat out a bunt and after the next two batters were retired, George Geatz rapped a home run to left to make it 3-1.

Shortfielder Cecil Grimes almost made a leaping catch of the drive and as left fielder Butch Johnson was preparing to field the ball, it hit a stone and ricocheted away for a two-run homer.

After Durbin belted his solo four-bagger, the Caseys came back in the sixth to make it 4-2. Jim Collins singled to start the inning and Clark hit what looked like a sure double play but the ever dependable Jimmy Eckard in his eagerness to get the twin-killing started, allowed the ball to get through his legs at shortstop for an error.

George Geatz singled to load the bases but Mil Dean took McGreevy's bouncer at third and threw out Collins at home for the first out. After Aman singled, Grimes booted the ball in short center but quickly recovered and Geatz was tagged out at the plate by Elliott on Grimes' perfect throw.

Moose Nip Celanese

Sheetz, who found VFW runners on base in every previous inning, set down the Vets in order in the last of the seventh, getting two of the batters on called strikes for his only strikeouts of the game. Kauffman whiffed four Caseys.

Runnerup to Durbin in batting were the Caseys' George Geatz with a single and homer and the Vets' Mil Dean with two singles in three trips. The loss was only the second in 11 starts for the Vets.

In yesterday's other game Loyal Order of Moose edged Celanese, 5-4. The loss was the 11th for winless Celanese, while the victory enabled the Moose to get back in the .500 column with a 6-5 record.

"Fatty" Weltman, who was relieved by Joe Niland in the sixth inning, received credit for the win.

Gordon Thrilled, Excited About Managing Indians

By CHARLES R. HORNICK

CLEVELAND (AP)—Joe Gordon, former star second baseman for the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians, flew here today to take over as manager of the Indians for tonight's game with Baltimore.

General manager Frank Lane announced Thursday night he had fired Bobby Bragan and hired Gordon for the rest of this season and for 1959.

"We are making this change with the hope that there will be a general improvement in the club," he explained.

Gordon, 43, an insurance salesman in Sacramento, Calif., since he left baseball after piloting San Francisco to a Pacific Coast League pennant last year, said he was "excited and thrilled" to take the job.

Openly Critical Of Bragan

Lane said the decision to fire Bragan was made in the last few days and resulted from a "succession of little things."

He refused to pinpoint any one thing that led to the change, but he has been openly critical of Bragan's platooning, his constant efforts to find a place for rookie outfielder Gary Geiger in the lineup and his handling of some pitchers.

Bragan was hired as manager by Hank Greenberg, Lane's predecessor, at the end of last season to succeed Kerby Farrell. He was informed of his dismissal shortly after the Indians lost 2-1 to the Boston Red Sox.

Surprised But Not Bitter

Bragan admitted the bad news hit him as a surprise, but he voiced no bitterness. In fact, he had only words of praise for Lane as a general manager.

Gordon played for the Yankees and Indians from 1938-50 and was a member of the Tribe's world championship team in 1948.

The 40-year-old Bragan began his managerial career with Fort Worth in the Texas League in

McIntyre's Cops Second In Rec Loop

National Guard and Marine Reserves, both hoping to get out of the second division in the Rec Softball League, tangled today at Naval Reserve Field in the only circuit contest carded. The Guardsmen have won only two of eight starts and the Marines are 2-5 for the year. The clash will start at 6:15.

Don McIntyre's behind the relief pitching of Bill Fair, took over second place yesterday by whipping Salvation Army, 7-5, at Rolling Mill diamond. Fair replaced starter Ted Troxell in the second with none out and gave up only three hits while fanning five over the last six frames to pick up the victory—McIntyre's sixth in eight starts.

Not Even Mays' Favorite Park Help In Slump

CINCINNATI (AP)—Willie Mays says Crosley Field here is his favorite park for hitting, but it didn't do him much good Thursday night.

The San Francisco Giant star outfielder's only contribution at the plate was a weak grounder hit to Cincinnati Redleg Don Hoak who managed to throw wildly for an error.

But otherwise in the 5-1 Giant victory, the Mays slugging talent seemed still shut off.

It was the 16th game in which he hasn't batted in a run.

Three more official trips to the plate made it 67 since he belted an extra base hit.

Giant Manager Bill Rigney moved Willie up to the No. 2 spot in the batting order instead of a cleanup berth.

Rigney said, "I'm not worried about Willie. There's nothing wrong with him physically. I'm convinced of that."

Cardinal "Bees" Whip Wildcats In 9-2 Tilt

"Spunk" Perlozzo allowed only a single by Chris Pfeiffer and struck out 13 as the Cardinals of the Dapper Dan farm system walloped the Columbia Street Wildcats, 9-2, yesterday at Furnace Street Field.

Donnie Sewell and Ricky Leutert had homers for the winners. Deffenbaugh, Wildcats' reliever, pitched hitless ball after relieving Lynch in the fourth inning.

New England And Midwest Golfers Shine

By BOB HOOBING.
ILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP)—Three New England players and one from the Midwest, challenged the dominant Southwest-Far West contingent in the third round of the National Collegiate Golf Championships. Houston's three-time team champions, runner-up Oklahoma State and third place Southern California beat witness to the fact their area with its advantageous weather holds the upper hand. But some geographical transplants from distant places are far from out of the struggle.

Maryland Star Bows
Dick Diversi, Waterville, Maine competitor who attends Rollins College in Florida, tees off against Frank Wharton, of Houston.

Underdog Diversi drew attention Thursday when he turned back Maryland's Jerry McFerron on the 10th hole in a driving rainstorm, then rallied to edge Dick Hanscom of Florida State 2-up after going 4 down on the first 5 holes.

Wharton whipped highly considered Dick Whetzel of North Texas State in the second round. Duke's Dick Siderow from New Britain, Conn., takes on another of the four Houston boys entering the round of 16—Bob Pratt.

Another player overlooked in the early going is Bill Thornton, Manchester, Conn., and the University of North Carolina, who opposes Save Klein of Cornell via Highland Park, Ill.

Dodge's Coast Champ
Bernie Magnusson, who migrated from Winnetka, Ill., to Stanford, defies Pacific Coast Conference champion Al Geiberger of USC.

Purdue's John Konsek (Buffalo, N. Y.) and Miami's Bob Brue (Milwaukee) clash for a shot at the "super area" entries.

Qualifying co-medalist Phil Rodgers of Houston and Ab Justice of Oklahoma State remain the men to beat.

Rodgers meets Oklahoma's Tom Black after eliminating Dave Lawrence, Arizona State, and Deane Beman of Maryland.

Justice draws Jackie Cupit of Houston. In the remaining match it is Jerry Pittman of Southern Methodist against Bart Hall of Oklahoma State.

The quarter final will follow in the afternoon.

Van Parsons smacked a homer and double, Dale Fuller had a round-tripper and single, Jim Poland belted a home run and Jack Gilmore collected a triple for the winners. Judy had two of the losers' four safeties.

Jim Sheehy's over-the-shoulder catch in deep right field for the final out with the bases loaded in the third inning supplied the fielding highlight for the victors.

Legion Knott Railroaders
Ridgeley Legion knotted Western Maryland for third place as Gene Hess bagged his fifth victory in limiting the Railroaders to five hits for a 5-3 triumph at Naval Reserve Field. Both teams have taken five wins in eight games.

Hess also chipped in with a heavy bat, socking a three-run homer in the second and adding a single later. Jack Hudson and Joe Gobeil had a pair of safeties apiece while Bob Pomroy featured in the field at third base for the winners.

"Turtle" Slonaker's triple in the fifth plated both of the losers' runs.

Surgery May Be Necessary For Nieman

BALTIMORE (AP)—Now they are talking about the possibility of surgery for the injured right hand of Bob Nieman, Baltimore Orioles outfielder out of the lineup since June 2.

Nieman flew here late yesterday from Detroit after a physical examination by the Tigers' team physician, Dr. Luther Leader. Dr. Leader told him he has a partial dislocation of the bone extending from the middle finger into the back of the hand.

Third Different Diagnosis
Dr. Leader said it would have to be corrected surgically.

This was the third different diagnosis Nieman has received since he was hit by a line drive off the bat of teammate Bob Boyd.

He returned here to be examined by Dr. George Bennett, orthopedic surgeon.

"I sure hope I don't need the operation," said the American League's leading hitter. "But if I do I might as well get it over with."

Nieman had two sets of x-rays made in Baltimore before starting on the current road trip and was examined several times. The opinion was that he had a severe bruise but could play whenever the pain and swelling subsided.

Most Of Swelling Gone
Most of the swelling is gone but Nieman still can't grip anything tightly, nor can he exert any pressure with the middle finger.

The Orioles could use him, to put it mildly. Lack of hitting is keeping them well mired in the depths of the league standings.

Yesterday, it was a different story. Jack Harshman, Baltimore's lean left-hander, pitched the Birds to a 2-0 victory over Detroit to boost the club's record for a western swing to 5-4.

The Orioles scored on Bob Boyd's homer in the sixth inning and a first-inning sacrifice fly by Gus Triandos that scored Gene Woodling.

Semproch Lauds Majors' Umpires
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rookie Ray Semproch, Philadelphia Phillies leading pitcher, put in a plug for National League umpires today.

"Big difference between the majors and the minors is the umpiring," said Semproch, who is bidding for Rookie of the Year honors with an 8-5 record. "It's better in the majors."

"Umpires give you the corners in this league. With the ball so lively, I spot my pitches carefully. Up here I can be pretty sure a good pitch across a corner of the plate will be called a strike."

"In the minors, an umpire might give me one corner and not the other. I could never be sure. You can't keep pitching to the same corner."

Women's U.S. Open Hit By High Winds

DETROIT (AP)—The women golfers are having trouble in their National Open, too.

Two weeks ago their male counterparts had to battle Tulsa's oppressive heat and the rugged Southern Hills golf course.

When the ladies started their U.S. Open Thursday, high winds swirled over the hilly acres at Forest Lake Country Club and the girls fought a losing battle against par.

Not one of the 54 competitors was able to equal the 37-36-73 par. The one-over-par 74 posted by tall Mickey Wright of Chula Vista, Calif., was good for a first round lead of one stroke.

Veteran Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill. claims she always has trouble in the first round of the Open, but her opening round 78 left her undismayed.

Trailing Miss Wright going into today's second round were Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., Betty Jameson of San Antonio, and Jackie Pung of Hawaii. Each had 75.

Alice Bauer and her sister, Marlene Bauer Hagge, were two strokes off the pace at 76. Wilfrid Smith of St. Clair, Mich., was penalized two strokes for showing up late at the first tee and took an 81.

After today's second round, the field will be cut and the low 40 scorers will make two trips over the 6,240-yard layout in Saturday's windup.

Sapp is also the proud possessor of the only ball ever hit over the center-field fence at Old Community Park. The immortal Babe Ruth belted it in batting practice in 1931 when the Yankees were playing the Cumberland Colts in an exhibition game.

Boots was standing on the railroad bank and outscrambled about 25 or 30 others for the ball. His shirt was torn off in the process but Ruth and Lou Gehrig autographed the prized souvenir for him.

Sapp is a grandfather "four times" and one of his grandsons, Greg Shaffer, is playing for the Athletics in the Dapper Dan Little League.

Paul Larson Signs With Chicago Cards
CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Larson, former University of California quarterback, has signed to play with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League, Walter Wolfner, managing director of the Cardinals, announced today.

Larson, 26, was voted the Most Valuable Player award in 1953 and 1954 at California, but then he went into service.

Bedford Optimist Seek Lead Tie; Jaycees Score

Bedford Road Optimist will be swinging to knot Jaycees for the lead in the Hot Stove Baseball League this afternoon when tangling with Kiwanis in a 3 o'clock contest at Penn Avenue Field.

Bedford Road has won three of four starts with Kiwanis playing 500 ball in four outings. Jaycees took over first place last night, marking up their fourth triumph in a row by pasting Lions Club, 7-1, at Penn Avenue.

One other clash is carded today, Elks (2-2) facing Rotary Club (1-3) at Penn Avenue in the second part of a twin bill. The tilt will begin at 8 o'clock following the Dapper Dan Little League fray between Indians and Dodgers at 6 o'clock.

Phil Barbe yielded only one hit, a two-bagger by Sisk in the first inning, in hurling Jaycees' triumph. He whiffed 10 in posting his third victory. Jaycees, after losing their opener, have reeled off wins in their last four attempts while Lions are now 3-3 for the year.

McKay and Barbe shared four of the victors' safeties with McKay socking a triple and Barbe collecting a two-bagger. White-man, first of three Lions' hurlers, was the loser.

Garden Plant Turns
Out To Be Marijuana
LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—Mr. and Mrs. Porter D. Stewart called in a neighbor when a dark-green plant in their garden refused to bloom. The neighbor surprisingly suggested they call the police. Detectives said the six-foot plant was one of the largest marijuana specimens they had ever run across.

Bing Thinks It Natural For Sons Being In News
By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The second generation of Crosby's has been much in the news lately, and Bob Crosby thinks he knows why. "It's the natural urge that all kids have to compete with their fathers," said Bing's younger brother. "It's nothing new, nor is it peculiar to show business. There's many a butcher's son who is frustrated because he can't cut as thin a slice of bacon as his father." "But when the father is famous, the urge to compete comes in the form of publicity. It's easy to get into the papers when you have a famous name. But it can be quite embarrassing to the family." "I tell my own children and I tell Bing's that they shouldn't let the fact that their fathers are in the limelight affect them. They should be neither extroverts or introverts because of it, but just try to create their own individuality." "Of course, that is easier said than done. The young Crosbys have made the headlines and gossip columns already. Bob's own 15-year-old Chris made the papers last week." "It was a stupid thing and Chris himself admits it," Bob said. "He doesn't know why he did it, except that he had just broken up with his girl and wanted to teach her a lesson or something." "He had just gotten his own new car as a reward for getting a B average in school. He was seven days away from getting his own license, so he had to have an older boy drive for him."

"Well, he and the other boy there is in New York City, that names of minors who are involved in this period of uncertainty," he commented. "The boys know that they can look forward to two or three years in the Army; their future is unsettled."

Bob added that it's difficult to rear children, famous or not, in this era and in Hollywood.
